North Carolina returns 21 starters (10 offense, nine defense, two special teams) from a team that won eight games a year ago.

NIKE

The University of North Carolina and Nike have an agreement to provide each varsity team with shoes, apparel, equipment bags and other products. The contract also provides annual funds to the academic and athletic excellence fund.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Atlantic Coast Conference championship game, featuring the winner of the Coastal Division vs. the winner of the Atlantic Division, will be held Saturday, Dec. 4, 2010, in Charlotte, N.C., at Bank of America Stadium. The game will be televised by ESPN at 7:45 p.m.

TARHEELBLUE.COM

TorHeelBlue.com, the official website for University of North Carolina athletics, is the 24-hour-a-day home for breaking news, in-depth features and colorful and informative commentary on the Tar Heels.

2010 Preview

Following back-to-back eight win seasons, North Carolina has higher goals in 2010 as it welcomes back 39 lettermen and on ACC-high 21 starters. The Tar Heels return 10 starters on offense, nine starters on defense and both their place-kicker and punter.

Carolino has made consecutive bowl trips for the first time since the late 1990s and will look to continue that streak when they start the season vs. LSU in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff in Atlanta.

"We must become a more balanced football team," says Butch Davis, who heads into his fourth season as UNC's head coach. "We can not rely solely on our defense to win games. We have an experienced team on both sides of the ball and we have a great opportunity this year to continue to build the program. We are excited about playing LSU in the season opener and our schedule is extremely challenging."

The best news this offseason came in January when six Carolina juniors who were considering entering the NFL Draft decided to return for their senior season. Those players included defensive standouts Morvin Austin, Kendrick Burney, Bruce Carter, Quan Sturdivant and Deunta Williams. Add in second-team All-American defensive end Robert Quinn and the Tar Heels hope to repeat as the ACC's best defense. They finished sixth in the nation last year, allowing just 269 yards per game. However, Carolina must replace defensive tackle Cam Thomas and defensive end E.J. Wilson, both of whom were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft. Juniors Tydreke Powell (DT) and Quinton Coples (DE) are expected to step into those positions, but will face competition from a host of players, including junior DE Michael McAdoo, who had four sacks and an interception in the Spring Game.

Despite losing just one starter on offense, Carolino will look to reconfigure its offense live. Jonathan Cooper, who started nine games last year at guard, will move to center, opening a spot for Travis Bond at guard. Bond impressed the coaching staff last year in his first career start vs. Pittsburgh in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. Senior Alan Pelc, a 13-game starter a year ago, is an all-conference candidate at the other guard position. Mike Ingersoll started 12 games in 2009 and will return at right tackle. Junior Carl Goskins and freshman James Hurst will compete for the left tackle spot. Goskins was expected to challenge for a starting role last year before tearing his ACL in preseason practice. Hurst enrolled at Carolino in January after a standout high school career.

Three-year starter T.J. Yates

North Carolina led the ACC and ranked No. 6 in the country in total defense a year ago. Nine starters, including defensive end Robert Quinn (42) and linebackers Bruce Carter (54) and Kevin Reddick (48) return in 2010.

returns as the starting quarterback, along with tailbacks Shaun Draughn (nine starts) and Ryan Haustan (four starts). Highly touted redshirt freshman Bryn Renner opens the season as the No. 2 quarterback.

The Tar Heels return 15 of the 16 players who caught at least one pass last year, including leading receiver Greg Little (62 catches for 724 yards, 5 TDs). Sophomores Erik Highsmith and Jheranie Boyd should only improve after earning playing time as true freshmen.

2010 Schedule

Six home games and a season-opening contest in Atlanta vs. LSU in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff game highlight North Carolina's 2010 football schedule. Carolino's home slate features games against Georgia Tech (Sept. 18), East Carolina (Oct. 2), Clemson (Oct. 9), William & Mary (Oct. 30), Virginia Tech (Nov. 13) and NC State (Nov. 20). This will be the first game between Carolino and Clemson in Chapel Hill since 2002.

The Tar Heels' road schedule features contests at Rutgers (Sept. 25), Virginia (Oct. 16), Miami (Oct.

23), Florida State (Nov. 6) and Duke (Nov. 27).

Carolino plays an ACC-high eight teams that finished 2009 with nine or more wins and eight of the Tar Heels' 12 opponents played in a bowl game last season. Based on opponents' combined winning percentage, Carolina (.97-.60; .618) will face the league's most difficult schedule in 2010, ahead of Virginia Tech (.95-.59; .617), Miami (.92-.61; .601), NC State (.91-.64; .587), Georgia Tech (.87-.64; .576), Florida State (.86-.66; .566), Virginia (.82-.73; .529), Maryland (.79-.72; .523), Wake Forest (.77-.76; .503), Clemson (.72-.79; .477) and Boston College (.68-.80; .460).

Coaching Staff Continuity

For the first time since Carl Torbush's first two years as UNC's head coach (1998-99), Carolino's coaching staff is completely intact in back-to-back seasons. All nine assistants, plus strength and conditioning coordinator Jeff Connors, will return for the 2010 season.

"It's important to have continuity on your staff to build relationships not only with the current players but with the high school coaches and future recruits," said Davis. "I'm pleased to have our entire staff intact this year."

News & Notes

- Carolina is expected to have several national award contenders this year, including DE Robert Quinn (Nagurski, Lombardi, Hendricks, Lott), DT Morvin Austin (Nogurski, Outland, Lombardi), LB Bruce Carter (Nogurski, Butkus), LB Quan Sturdivant (Nagurski, Butkus), CB Kendrick Burney (Thorpe), S Deunta Williams (Thorpe, Lott), TE Zack Pianalto (Mackey), WR Greg Little (Biletnikoff), OG Alan Pelc (Outland) and PK Casey Barth (Grozio).
- Of North Carolina's five losses last season, three were by a combined total of just six points - Florida State (30-27), NC State (28-27) and Pittsburgh (17-16).
- North Carolina leads the ACC with 13 non-offensive touchdowns over the last two seasons.

Cornerback Kendrick Burney has three scores and linebackers Quan Sturdivant and Bruce Carter have two each.

• North Carolina's nine returning defensive starters have 233 career starts. That is the most of any team in the ACC. Defensive back Deunta Williams and Kendrick Burney have started every game in their Carolino careers (38).

Kenan Stadium Master Plan

In late May, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Board of Trustees approved the Carolino Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, a five-story privately financed structure that will be built in Kenan Stadium's east end zone to house the academic support center for student-athletes, the Carolina Leadership Academy, Olympic sports' strength and conditioning center, visiting locker room, club seats and individual suites.

Quarterback T.J. Yates ranks second in nearly every Carolina career passing category, including yards, completions, attempts and touchdown passes.

Construction began immediately on the project that is expected to take roughly 15 months to complete in time for the start of the 2011 football season. The Center for Excellence will replace the Kenan Fieldhouse, which was built in 1927.

Sales of club seats and individual suites began in October 2009. Those sales will provide approximately 50 percent of the funding of the $70 million project. Private donations will fund the rest of the project. The athletic department will not use state funds.

"The Carolina Student-Athlete Center for Excellence will help us provide exceptional academic support to our nearly 800 student-athletes," says Director of Athletics Dick Baddaur. "It also creates a new source of revenue that over the next 30 years will help us maintain the broad-based, 28-sport program we have long enjoyed."

Potential NFL Draftees Return For Senior Season

Six North Carolina juniors explored the possibility of going pro after the bowl game last season, but all six elected to return for the 2010 season, including DT Marvin Austin, LB Bruce Carter, LB Quan Sturdivant, CB Kendrick Burney, S Deunta Williams and WR Greg Little. Sturdivant, Burney and Williams were 2009 first-team All-ACC selections and Austin and Carter were second-team picks. Little became just the fifth player in UNC history to post more than 60 receptions.

Austin, Carter and Sturdivant all have been listed as the No. 1 NFL draft prospects at their respective positions by ESPN's Mel Kiper Jr. In its rankings of 2011 NFL prospects, CollegeFootballNews.com has Austin listed as the No. 1 defensive tackle, Sturdivant as the No. 2 inside linebacker, Carter as the No. 1 outside linebacker, Williams as the No. 1 free safety, Burney as the

No. 2 cornerback and Little as the No. 11 wide receiver. Other UNC players on that list include No. 1 defensive end prospect Robert Quinn (a junior) and cornerback Charles Brown as the No. 13 cornerback.

Butch Davis Rebuilding Job

In Butch Davis' three seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels have won 20 games (4-8 in 2007, 8-5 in 2008, 8-5 in 2009), which is one more than they won in the five years (2002-06) prior to his arrival. Among the evidence that Carolina football has improved its profile since his arrival:

- Season ticket sales have increased
- Carolina played its first Thursday Night ESPN football game in 2009
- Carolina's 2010 Spring Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN and drew a school-record 29,500.
- Carolina has produced first-round NFL Draft picks (Kentwan Balmer by the San Francisco 49ers in 2008 and Hakeem Nicks by the New York Giants in 2009) under Davis.
- Carolina advanced to back-to-back bowl games for the first time since going to seven straight from 1992-98.
- Carolina will play in the prestigious Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game vs. LSU in the 2010 season opener.
- Three of Davis' four UNC recruiting classes have been ranked in the Top 25 by a majority of recruiting analysts.

The Mighty Quinn

Junior defensive end Robert Quinn was diagnosed with a brain tumor during his senior season at Ft. Darchester High School (S.C.). Fortunately, his tumor was benign, but still required emergency surgery. He was told by a hospital nurse that he would never play football again. Quinn not only recovered, but he came back earlier than expected and won a third straight heavyweight wrestling state high school championship.

At the same time of his recruitment, North Carolina head coach Butch Davis had been dealing with his own cancer treatments (non-Hodgkin's lymphoma) and promised Robert a scholarship would be waiting at Carolina no matter what happened. On signing day in 2007, Quinn signed with the Tar Heels and started 12 games as a freshman. As a sophomore last season, he led the ACC in tackles for losses and was second in sacks and forced fumbles. He was named first-team All-ACC and was a second-team All-America by CBSsports.com.

Bruce Carter in the Weight Room

Senior linebacker Bruce Carter is one of the most talented players on the field, but has also proved himself in the weight room. In the most recent testing, Carter had the following measurables: Bench Press 440; Power Clean 374 (UNC linebacker record); Back Squat 605; Vertical Jump 40.5 (UNC linebacker record); Broad Jump 10.6 (Broad Jump); 40-Yard Dash (4.39); 20-Yard Shuttle (4.19).

Carter finished third on the team last year with 65 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. He was selected second-team All-ACC.

This summer, Carter was named by ESPN.com as the nation's top "workout warrior".

Position-By-Position Previews

Offensive Line: Injuries and attrition last season occasionally forced the Tar Heels to play with three freshmen on the offensive line, including nine-game starter Jonathon Cooper, tackle Brennan Williams and guard Travis Bond. Those three players gained a tremendous amount of experience and all should battle for a starting spot this year along with returnees Mike Ingersoll (12 starts) and Carl Gaskins at tackle and Alan Pelc (13 starts) and Greg Elleby at guard. Redshirt freshman David Collins, who had a foot injury last year, will compete for playing time along with January enrollees James Hurst and T.J. Leifheit. Leifheit missing most of the spring after undergoing ankle surgery. Pelc missed all of spring practice while recovering from offseason shoulder surgery, but is healthy entering fall camp. Gaskins tore his ACL last fall, but should be completely healthy heading into fall camp.

Losses: LT Kyle Jolly, C Lowell Dyer

Newcomers: OL Nick Appel, OL Russell Bodine, OT James Hurst, OT T.J. Leifheit

Wide Receivers: Every Carolina receiver or tight end who caught at least one pass returns in 2010, including versatile performer Greg Little (1,112 all-purpose yards), speedy Jheranie Boyd (four TDs) and reliable Erik Highsmith (37 receptions). Little, a senior from Durham, N.C., became just the fifth player in UNC history to post 60 or more receptions in a single season. Boyd also proved to be a valuable weapon as a runner averaging 10.8 yards on 20 attempts. Highsmith's 37 receptions were just one reception shy of Hokeem Nicks' single-season freshman record of 38. Behind that trio, Carolina returns several promising players including Dwight Jones, Todd Harrelson and Joshua Adams. Adams started the first two games last season before a shoulder injury ended his season. He received a medical redshirt and enters 2010 with four years of eligibility remaining.

Returnees: WR Joshua Adams, WR Jheranie Boyd, WR Todd Harrelson, WR Erik Highsmith, WR Dwight Jones, WR Greg Little - (returning starters in italic)

Losses: WR Roshod Moson

Newcomers: WR Brendon Felder, WR Seon Topley, WR Reggie Wilkins

Tight Ends/H-Backs: North Carolina is 13-5 over the last two seasons when Zack Pionalto plays. He is a favorite target for T.J. Yates, especially on third down, and last season, he set the UNC single-season record for receptions (33) by a tight end despite missing four games with an foot injury. He enters the spring healthy and should contend for all-conference honors in 2010. NFL draft analysts have him among the top five tight ends in the country. Joining Pionalto at tight end is senior Ed Barham, who is noted for his blocking ability, but caught six passes a year ago, including a touchdown vs. Florida State. After sitting out last season as a transfer from Mississippi State, Nelson Hurst will be eligible this year. At the h-back position, senior Ryan Taylor, who missed all of last year with a knee injury, returns for his fifth year. Taylor is a tough player who also will improve Carolina's special teams coverage. Junior Christian Wilson saw action in seven games last season and recorded five catches for 30 yards. January enrollee Sean Fitzpatrick gives the Tar Heels much needed depth.

Sure-handed senior tight end Zack Pionalto had 33 receptions last season in just nine games.

Running Backs/Quarterbacks:

Shaun Draughn started nine games last season until a shoulder blade injury sidelined him for the final four games. His injury allowed Ryan Houston to showcase his ability as the full-time starting tailback. Draughn and Houston combined for 1,280 yards on 315 carries, on average of 98.5 yards per game. Houston had his most productive game against Duke, carrying 37 times for 164 yards. Senior Anthony Elzy is a versatile player and is a receiving threat at either fullback or tailback. Devon Romsay played his way into the starting fullback role last year and continues to improve. Johnny White was a standout on special teams with 16 tackles and led the team in kickoff returns. A.J. Blue, a versatile running back who can also play quarterback, tore knee ligaments in last year's game vs. Georgia Southern and missed spring practice. He will be limited in the fall as he continues to recover.

At quarterback, T.J. Yates enters the spring as a three-year starter. Yates is second in the UNC record book in career passing yards, attempts and completions. Highly touted redshirt freshman Bryn Renner enters the spring No. 2 on the depth chart. Sophomore signal caller Broden Hinson played in three games last year.

Losses: FB Bobby Rome, TB Jomol Womble

Newcomer: TB Giovoni Bernord

Greg Little hauled in 62 receptions last year and should contend for all-conference honors in 2010.

Defensive Line: Corolino's only two losses on the starting defense come along the defensive line with the graduation of tackle Com Thomas and end E.J. Wilson. Fortunately, the Tar Heels have two standout defensive linemen returning, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year candidates Robert Quinn at end and Morvin Austin at tackle. Quinn earned first-team All-ACC honors after leading the ACC in tackles for losses and finishing second in sacks. Austin was a second-team honoree after posting 42 tackles and four sacks. They will be joined on the line by juniors Tydreke Powell at tackle and Quinton Coples at end. Powell is best remembered for stripping the ball from Virginia Tech's Ryan Williams to set up Corolino's game-winning field goal. Coples was superb as a pass rush specialist with five sacks. Junior Michael McAdoo and sophomore Donte Poige-Moss provide exceptional depth at end, while junior Jordan Nix and redshirt freshman Jared McAdoo compete for playing time at tackle. Former linebacker Linwon Euwell moved to defensive end in the spring.

Losses: DT Tavoress Brown, DT Aleric Mullins, DT Com Thomas, DE E.J. Wilson

Newcomers: DL Quinton Alton, DL Tim Jackson, DL Koreem Martin, DT Brandon Willis

Linebackers: Corolino welcomes back two of the nation's top rated linebackers in Bruce Corter and Quon Sturdivant for their senior seasons. Add in promising sophomore Kevin Reddick and the Tar Heels have one of the best starting linebacker combinations in the country. Sturdivant played both middle and outside linebacker last year and led the team with 79 tackles. Corter played on the other side of Sturdivant and had 65 tackles. Reddick assumed the starting middle linebacker role at the midpoint of the season and responded with 45 tackles, including 5.5 for losses. Junior Zach Brown is one of the fastest Tar Heels on the team and has competed in the offseason with the UNC track team. He started six games last year and had 47 tackles. Several other players are waiting in the wings, including juniors Hermon Davidson and Ebele Okokpu, and sophomores Dion Guy and Shone Mulorkey.

Returns: LB Zach Brown, LB Bruce Corter, LB Hermon Davidson, LB Dion Guy, LB Shone Mulorkey, LB Ebele Okokpu, LB Kevin Reddick, LB Quon Sturdivant - (returning starters in italic)

Losses: LB Howarth Bell, LB Kennedy Tinsley

Newcomers: LB P.J. Clyburn, LB Ty Linton, LB Dorius Lipford

Defensive Backs: All four starters return in 2010, including first-team All-ACC performers and Thorpe Award nominees Kendrick Burney and Deunta Williams. Burney and Williams combined for 314 of Corolino's school-record 508 interception return yards last year. UNC's defensive backs picked off 17 passes a year ago with each starter registering at least one. Williams ranks third at UNC with 12 career interceptions, while Burney has nine. Senior Charles Brown is a talented cover man who finished second on the team last year with 66 tackles. Senior safety Do'Norris Seorcy is a hard-hitting, aggressive defender who also returned kicks in 2009. He has improved every season and could contend for all-conference honors. Safety Mott Merletti is returning from an ACL injury suffered last preseason and should help Corolino's special teams as well. Cornerbacks Mywon Jackson and Gene Robinson gained valuable playing experience last year as true freshmen and had good spring performances. The Tar Heels have several promising young players, including redshirt freshmen Curtis Campbell, Josh Hunter and Terry Shonkle.

Losses: S Melvin Williams

Newcomers: CB Tre Boston, S D.J. Bunn, DB Jobori Price

Specialists: Casey Borth led the ACC with 21 field goals in 2009, tying the single-season school record, and earned second-team All-ACC honors. Borth made 16 field goals in a row at one point during the season and made 34 of 35 PATs. He enters the season as a candidate for the Lou Groza Award, presented annually to the nation's top kicker. Punter Grant Schollock returns as the starting punter, but will face competition from redshirt freshman C.J. Feogles. Last season, Schollock averaged 40.3 yards, but needs to become more consistent. Deep snapper Trevor Stuart returns from last year's ACL injury to compete with walk-on Mark House for the starting role.

Returns: PK Casey Borth, P C.J. Feogles, DS Mark House, P Grant Schollock, DS Trevor Stuart

THE CAROLINA EXPERIENCE

HOME OF THE TAR HEELS

— MEL KIPER JR., ESPN

An aerial, black and white photograph of Kenan Stadium. The stadium is packed with spectators, filling the tiered seating areas. The football field is visible in the lower-left corner, with yard lines and numbers clearly marked. The word "HEELS" is partially visible on the field. The stadium is surrounded by campus buildings and trees. A text box in the upper right corner provides historical context.

HISTORIC KENAN STADIUM, SITUATED IN THE MIDDLE OF CAMPUS, HAS BEEN THE HOME OF THE TAR HEELS SINCE 1927.

THE BLUE ZONE

OFFERING CLUB SEATS, LOGE SEATS AND SUITES

THE NEW BLUE ZONE AT KENAN STADIUM TAKES YOU AS CLOSE TO THE ACTION AS YOU CAN GET WITHOUT WEARING A HELMET. THE BLUE ZONE OFFERS FOUR TYPES OF PREMIUM SEATING ON THREE DIFFERENT LEVELS - JUST FEET FROM THE ACTION, AND CLOSER THAN ANY OTHER SEATING IN KENAN STADIUM. WITHIN THE BLUE ZONE, FANS CAN ENJOY COMFORTABLE CHAIR-BACK SEATING, A CLIMATE-CONTROLLED SOCIAL SPACE, FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVICE AND MUCH MORE. ENJOY CAROLINA FOOTBALL FROM THE BEST SEATS IN THE HOUSE ... WITH GREAT VIEWS OF THE ACTION ON THE FIELD, THE BELL TOWER AND BEAUTIFUL KENAN STADIUM.

— NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE

• Chapel Hill has been ranked the No. 1 most livable small city (less than 100,000) in America.

• The Triangle (Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill) has often been cited as one of the nation's top areas in which to live. Residents are within easy driving distance of both beaches and mountains.

FACTS AND FIGURES

- UNC has been ranked as the fifth best public university in U.S. News & World Report's 2010 "Best Colleges" guidebook for the ninth consecutive year.
- UNC was ranked among 25 "New Ivy" campuses in the 2007 Kaplan/Newsweek "How to Get into College Guide." Includes schools with first-rate academic programs fueling their rise in national stature.
- UNC ranks first among the 100 U.S. public colleges and universities that offer the best combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs as ranked by Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine in January 2010. UNC has ranked first every time since Kiplinger's began its periodic ranking in 1998.
- UNC ranks second among major U.S. universities in the percentage of African-American students in the 2008 first-year class, according to The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education. Carolina had held the No. 1 spot for 6 of the previous nine years.
- In fall 2009, Carolina enrolled 3,960 first-year students drawn from a record 23,047 applications – a 21 percent increase over the past five years. Nearly 80 percent of the first-year students were in the top 10 percent of their high school classes; almost 44 percent were among the top 10 students in their graduating classes. In all, Carolina enrolled 17,981 undergraduates. Total enrollment is currently 28,916.
- Carolina's 273,684 alumni live in all 50 states and 152 countries. More than 147,800 of those alumni live in all 100 North Carolina counties.

BUTCH DAVIS HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON AT UNC
36TH SEASON OVERALL

Entering his fourth season at North Carolina, head coach Butch Davis has brought energy and enthusiasm back to the Tar Heel football program with his ability to motivate, teach and recruit at the highest level. A man with a proven record of success and an unyielding commitment to excellence, Davis has a clear vision for building a championship program in Chapel Hill based on integrity, character and honor.

In three seasons at North Carolina, Davis has led the Tar Heels to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in more than a decade and produced 16 wins over the past two years - the most since consecutive double-digit wins in 1996-97. The former head coach at the University of Miami and the NFL's Cleveland Browns, Davis is Carolina's 33rd head coach and the ninth since the ACC was formed in 1953.

Introduced as North Carolina's head coach on Nov. 13, 2006, Davis quickly rejuvenated the fan base and brought excitement to every Saturday at Kenan Stadium. Beginning with his first Carolina recruiting class in 2007, which many analysts ranked among the top 10 in the country, Davis has connected with student-athletes and fans alike with his brand of fast, hard-nosed, disciplined football.

Davis, who guided Miami out of NCAA probation and into the upper echelon of college football in the late 1990s, has likewise turned around the UNC program. Carolina improved from 4-8 in 2007 to 8-5 in 2008, which was the sixth-best turnaround in the country. A second consecutive eight-win season in 2009 gives the Tar Heels 20 wins under Davis, which is one more than they won in the five years (2002-06) prior to his arrival.

Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics. His teams have been recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his nine seasons as a head coach, including six at Miami and three at UNC.

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 13 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. An excellent motivator and technician, Davis recruited or coached a number of players at Miami who were selected in the NFL Draft, including an amazing 28 first-round picks in six seasons. Since his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis has produced two first-round draft picks in defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer and wide receiver Hakeem Nicks.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Davis served as an analyst on the NFL Network for two seasons. There he was able to watch and study the latest college football offensive and defensive schemes. Yearning to return to the college coaching ranks, Davis surveyed the college football landscape, and when the Carolina job came open, he was immediately interested.

Carolina fans have certainly responded to his style of football. Just this past spring, Carolina attracted a school-record crowd of 29,500 to the Blue-White Spring Game, which was broadcast nationally on ESPN. Since 2007, Carolina has sold out nearly every home game, increased average attendance by more than 15 percent and has sold more than 35,000 season tickets per season, including a school-record 36,250 in 2008.

Davis' third Carolina team used a dynamic defense and an opportunistic offense to go 8-5 overall, 4-4 in the ACC and advance to a second consecutive Meineke Bowl in Charlotte. The Tar Heels' defense led the ACC and ranked sixth in the country in yards allowed. Carolina hosted its first-ever ESPN Thursday night game vs. Florida State and a week later knocked off No. 14 Virginia Tech in Blacksburg on Thursday night. Carolina also scored impressive wins over East Carolina, Connecticut, Duke, Miami and Boston College to post a second straight winning season. Of the Tar Heels' five losses, three were by a combined total of just six points. Carolina placed nine players on the All-ACC teams, including four first-team selections, which was the most since 1997.

Carolina began to show evidence of improvement when it posted the nation's sixth-best turnaround from 2007 (4-8) to 2008 (8-5). The Tar Heels won games over bowl teams Rutgers, Miami, Connecticut, Notre Dame, Boston College and Georgia Tech and were in the hunt for the 2008 ACC championship until the final week of the season. The Tar Heels earned an invitation to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in Charlotte, its first postseason game since 2004, and sold more than 22,000 tickets (10,000 more than its allotment) in just one week of sales. An estimated 40,000 Carolina fans were in attendance.

"We are

No stranger to success, Davis has coached in 13 postseason bowl games as an assistant or head coach, including two apiece in the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls, and he either recruited or coached nearly all the players from Miami's 2001 national championship team. He also won two Super Bowls as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys. As a head coach, Davis has recruited or coached an amazing 30 first-round NFL Draft picks.

building a program to compete at the highest level for a national championship," says Davis, who won a national title as an assistant coach with Miami in 1987. "It's a process that takes time and we are heading in the right direction. The steps we take are not always evident on the field, but are also accomplished in the classroom, the weight room and other areas off the field. We are climbing the mountain."

Davis' first season in Chapel Hill was highlighted by an impressive 33-27 win over Miami, in which he earned his first ACC victory against his former school. Carolina was competitive in nearly every game, with six losses decided by a combined total of just 24 points. Statistically, Carolina finished 35th in the country in total defense, improving nearly 60 positions from the previous year.

Several individuals have benefitted from Davis's return to the college game, none more than defensive tackle Kentwan Balmer and wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, both of whom became first-round draft picks under Davis' tutelage.

Balmer had career highs in tackles and sacks in 2007, earned all-conference honors for the first time and was selected in the first round by the San Francisco 49ers. In 2008, Nicks finished an outstanding three-year career with 14 school records and was selected in the first round by the New York Giants. Nicks became the 30th first-round draft choice Davis has produced as a college coach. Many observers agree that Davis and his staff prepare players for professional football better than any other group in the country.

"Coach Davis taught me how to be a professional player," says Balmer. "I know I still have a lot to learn, but I think I understand more of what it takes to be an NFL player now than I did before. I wouldn't be a first-round draft pick without his help and guidance."

"Coach Davis prepares players incredibly well for the NFL," says Nicks. "Without his help and the assistant coaches, I would not be where I am today."

Carolina had an ACC-best five players picked in the 2009 NFL Draft, including Nicks, second-round pick Richard Quinn, third-rounder Brandon Tate and fifth-round picks Garrett Reynolds and Brooks Foster. Over the last three years, the Tar Heels have had nine players drafted and several others have signed as free agents, including Tampa Bay Buccaneers starting kicker Connor Barth.

But statistics and draft choices don't reveal the full story. Davis has hired an outstanding staff of assistant coaches, brought in four consecutive recruiting classes stocked with some of the nation's top high school players, and produced an entertaining product on the field. In addition, the University is currently underway with a renovation of Kenan Stadium that will enhance the overall fan and student-athlete experience and provide a source of revenue for the athletic department. The first phase of the Kenan Stadium Master plan was completed in time for the 2009 football season. A fifth floor was added to the Kenan Football Center, which contains additional space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four gameday gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. Fourth floor renovations included additional office space for football support staff. The first floor players' locker room was also completely renovated.

In May, 2010, UNC's Board of Trustees approved the the Carolina Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, a five-story privately financed structure that will be built in Kenan Stadium's east end zone to house the academic support center for student-athletes, the Carolina Leadership Academy, Olympic sports' strength and conditioning center, visiting locker room, club seats and individual suites.

Davis was head coach for six seasons at Miami (1995-2000) and led the Hurricanes to a 51-20 record, three Big East Conference championships and four postseason bowl wins in as many appearances. He took over a Miami program faced with NCAA sanctions that restricted the number of scholarships in his first three seasons. However, his Hurricane teams finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on four occasions, including No. 2 in the nation in 2000, when the Canes went 11-1 and beat Florida, 37-20, in the Sugar Bowl.

In his first year in Coral Gables, Davis helped the Canes earn a share of the Big East Conference Championship by winning seven straight games to close the '95 season. The team would have received an invitation to a BCS bowl game, however, Miami declined the invitation due to NCAA sanctions previously approved by university officials for violations prior to Davis' arrival.

Davis again led Miami to a share of the Big East title in 1996 and catapulted the Hurricanes to a top 20 ranking and their first bowl victory in five years with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. The following season he led Miami to a 46-23 win over North Carolina State in the 1998 Micron PC Bowl.

Davis' 1999 squad began the year with a 23-12 victory over Ohio State in the Kickoff Classic and capped the season with a 28-13 victory over Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl, the Hurricanes' first New Year's Day bowl game under Davis.

In his final year at Miami (2000), the Hurricanes posted an 11-1 mark, including a 37-20 victory over Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. That team was second in the nation in scoring, fifth in total offense, fifth in scoring defense and eighth in pass defense.

Davis also emphasizes the importance of academics, and his Hurricanes earned recognition from the American Football Coaches Association for outstanding graduation rates in each of his six seasons.

Davis left Coral Gables following the 2000 season to join the Cleveland Browns. In his first season in Cleveland in 2001, Davis led his young team to an impressive 7-9 record, exceeding by two the expansion club's combined victories from 1999 and 2000 (5-27). Cleveland led the NFL in takeaways with 42, including a league-high and team-record 33 interceptions. The Browns defense also scored 32 points (four interception returns, one fumble return, one safety). His second season as head coach resulted in the Browns earning their first playoff appearance and best regular season mark since 1994, despite 34 of the 53 players on the team's final active roster having four years of NFL experience or less.

Cleveland finished the season with a 7-3 mark over its final 10 games, including victories in four of its final six outings, the best record over the final six games of the season for the franchise since 1988.

Cleveland was Davis' second stint in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-94 and was defensive coordinator in 1993 and 1994. The Cowboys won consecutive Super Bowls in 1992 and 1993 and played in one other NFC championship game. Davis helped Dallas post one of the most spectacular turnarounds in sports history as the Cowboys went from a lowly 1-15 squad in 1989 to one of the most dominant NFL programs in the 1990s. He was the defensive line coach in the Cowboys' 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII and served as defensive coordinator in the Cowboys' 30-13 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVIII. As defensive line coach in 1992, Davis helped the Cowboys lead the NFL in rushing defense. As coordinator a year later, the Cowboys set a team record by allowing just 21 touchdowns in 16 regular-season games and allowed one offensive touchdown or less in 12 of 16 games.

Davis was also defensive coordinator during Barry Switzer's first season as head coach in 1994 and helped Dallas reach the NFC Championship Game, where eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco denied its bid for a three-peat. Davis's defense was No. 1 in the league in total defense (269.6 yards per game) and pass defense (172.0 yards per game), and third in scoring defense (15.5 points per game). He coached three Pro Bowl starters – end Charles Haley, tackle Leon Lett and safety Darren Woodson. The three defensive starters were the most for the Cowboys since 1983.

Davis was defensive line coach at Miami from 1984-88 under head coach Jimmy Johnson, whom he also coached under for five years in Dallas and five years at Oklahoma State. The Hurricanes went 52-9 in those five years and won the national championship after beating Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl to cap a perfect 12-0 record in 1987. He coached 15 linemen who went on to play in the NFL, including All-Americans Bill Hawkins, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Daniel Stubbs and the late Jerome Brown. Davis' line was a key part of the Miami defense that finished second in the nation in both scoring defense (9.7 points per game) and total defense (242.0 yards per game) in 1988. The 1986 Hurricanes set a school record with 49 sacks, broke the mark with 50 in 1988 and held opposing rushers to fewer than 2.3 yards per carry in 1987 and 1988.

Davis entered the collegiate coaching ranks on the offensive side of the ball as an assistant on Johnson's Oklahoma State University teams from 1979-83. At Oklahoma State, Davis coached receivers and tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Davis played college football at the University of Arkansas for coach Frank Broyles, but his career was cut short due to a knee injury. He earned a bachelor's degree in biology and life science in 1974. His coaching career began as a volunteer assistant in 1973 at Fayetteville High School in Arkansas. He had stints in Oklahoma at Pawhuska High School (1974-75) and Sand Springs High School (1976-77) as an assistant coach and at Tulsa Rogers High School (1978) in his first head coaching assignment before joining Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State.

Paul Hilton (Butch) Davis is a native of Tahlequah, Okla. Davis and his wife, Tammy, have a teenage son, Drew.

The Davis Family is heavily involved in the Chapel Hill and surrounding communities. Since moving to Chapel Hill in 2006, the Davis's have pledged their time and financial support to many organizations. They include, but are not limited to: Night of Champions, Flashes of Hope, Lineberger Cancer Center, UNC Children's Hospital, SECU Family House, Athletes in Action, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Habitat for Humanity, Carolina Kids, Multiple Sclerosis, Crosby Scholars and Informed Families.

Davis is an active member of the Chapel Hill community and encourages his players to participate in community service events throughout the year. Davis has been the keynote speaker of the UNC Children's Hospital Christmas Card unveiling (left) each of the past two years.

Davis and his wife, Tammy, also sponsor an annual golf tournament to raise funds for the SECU Family House, a facility that provides housing, healing, and hope to families with an adult patient being treated for a critical illness or injury at UNC Hospitals or its affiliated clinics. In just two years, the tournament has raised more than $250,000.

JOHN BLAKE

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH DEFENSIVE LINE COACH RECRUITING COORDINATOR
FOURTH SEASON AT UNC

John Blake enters his fourth season on the North Carolina staff as the Tar Heels' associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. Blake, who coached with Butch Davis in Dallas, has developed some of the top defensive linemen in the country at all levels, including high school, college and the NFL.

Over the past three seasons in Chapel Hill, Blake has tutored a number of highly skilled defensive linemen, including 2009 first-team All-ACC selection Robert Quinn at defensive end and second-team pick Marvin Austin at defensive tackle. Quinn (19 tackles for losses, 11 sacks) and Austin both return in 2010 and are considered among the top five talents in the country at their respective positions.

Last season, Blake's defensive line dominated the point of attack and Carolina finished sixth in the nation in tackles for losses, No. 6 in total defense and No. 10 against the run. Defensive end E.J. Wilson and defensive tackle Cam Thomas were selected in the 2010 NFL Draft as Blake continued a history of developing professional talent.

In three seasons at UNC, Blake has sent five defensive linemen to the NFL, including 2008 first-round draft pick Kentwan Balmer. Blake earned rave reviews from NFL Draft analysts for his ability to develop Balmer into a first-round selection in just one year of coaching. "Kentwan had a great senior year under the tutelage of John Blake, who I think is one of the best defensive line coaches at any level," said ESPN's Mel Kiper Jr.

In addition to his abilities as a defensive line coach, Blake is considered by many observers as the nation's top recruiter. In three of the last four years, at least one recruiting publication has named Blake the nation's top recruiter. Three different Sporting News recruiting analysts named him the best in 2009. He also earned the same distinction from CSTV's Tom Lemming in 2008 and the Wall Street Journal and American Football Quarterly in 2007.

Blake was responsible for the recruitment of Austin, the nation's No. 1 high school defensive player in 2007, and Carolina's signing classes have ranked among the best in the country every season.

Blake came to Carolina after serving three seasons at the University of Nebraska, where he coached or recruited several outstanding defensive linemen, including 2007 NFL first-round draft pick Adam Carriker (13th overall), 2007 third-round draft pick Jay Moore and 2010 NFL first-round selection Ndamukong Suh. The Huskers defensive line was ranked the top defensive line unit in the country by CollegeFootballNews.com in 2006.

Davis and Blake previously worked together as members of Jimmy Johnson's staff with the

The Blake Family: Jaurdan, Freda & John

Dallas Cowboys. Blake joined the Dallas staff as defensive line coach after Davis was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1993. That year, Dallas ranked eighth in the league in total defense and beat Buffalo, 30-13, in Super Bowl XXVIII. After Davis left to become the head coach at Miami in 1995, Blake remained in Dallas and won another Super Bowl title under head coach Barry Switzer.

A native of Rockford, Ill., Blake played for Switzer at Oklahoma from 1979-82, where he earned All-Big Eight honors at nose guard. He later returned to his alma mater to serve as head coach of the Sooners from 1996-98.

At Oklahoma, Blake began as a student assistant working with the defensive line in 1985 and earned a national championship ring that season. The Sooners lost just two games during his first tenure on the staff.

Blake's first full-time assistant position was at Tulsa from 1987-88, where he coached the tight ends and wide receivers. He returned to his alma mater in 1989 as the Sooners' defensive line coach, and then served as Gary Gibbs' linebackers coach from 1990 to 1992.

After Johnson hired Blake in Dallas, five players made the Pro Bowl during his three seasons. Blake's defensive line was considered one of the best in the NFL during his tenure. Among others, Blake tutored Pro Bowlers Charles Haley, Russell Maryland, Leon Lett, Chad Henning, Tony Tolbert and Jim Jeffcoat.

Blake earned his bachelor's degree in public relations and recreation from Oklahoma in 1986. He and his wife, Freda, have one son, Jaurdan.

KEN BROWNING

RUNNING BACKS COACH
17TH SEASON AT UNC

The longest tenured assistant coach at North Carolina, Ken Browning enters his 17th season with the Tar Heels and fourth as the running backs coach. Browning has coached on the offensive and defensive side of the ball at UNC, including three seasons as tight ends coach (2001-04) and 11 years as defensive tackles coach (1994-2000, 2005-06). Butch Davis is the fourth head coach Browning has worked under at North Carolina. Browning also oversees Carolina's camps and clinics.

Over the past two seasons, Browning has developed the tandem of Shaun Draughn and Ryan Houston into one of the top tailback combinations in the league. Draughn was among the league's top rushers in 2009 before a shoulder injury vs. Duke sidelined him for the rest of the year. Houston, who finished ninth in the league in touchdowns, took over as the primary ball carrier and led the team in rushing. Houston has combined for 17 touchdowns over the last two seasons and is one of the most difficult runners to bring down after initial contact. Draughn converted from safety to running back in 2008 and has started 17 games in the last two years.

In 16 seasons in Chapel Hill, Browning has developed a number of outstanding players, including first-round NFL draft picks Vonnie Holliday (DT), Marcus Jones (DT/DE) and Ryan Sims (DT) and second-round picks Rick Terry (DT) and Russell Davis (DT). He also recruited and coached 2008 first-round NFL draft pick Kentwan Balmer. Sports Illustrated selected North Carolina's defensive tackles in its positional "Dream Team" in its 1998 preseason college football issue. In 2002, Sims, who played under Browning for three years, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round.

Browning is in his second stint coaching on the offensive side of the ball at UNC. He coached Carolina's tight ends for four seasons (2001-04), where he developed several standout players.

With Browning on the defensive side of the ball, the Tar Heels led the ACC in total defense from 1995-97 and finished No. 2 in the nation in yards allowed in 1996 and 1997. The Tar Heels were third in the country against the run in 1996 allowing 73.9 yards per game. In 1997, Carolina was fourth in the nation stopping the run as opponents averaged 77.9 yards per contest. UNC held opponents to less than 50 yards rushing in six games and less than 100 yards in nine of 12 games.

Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000, Browning directed a UNC squad that set a school record with an ACC-best 53 sacks. Carolina finished 19th in the nation against the run, allowing just 103.5 yards per game, and was second in the league and 30th in the nation in total defense.

One of the state's most decorated high school coaches, Browning joined the Tar Heel staff in

1994 and has coached in some of the most memorable Carolina football games. He has been a part of eight bowl games and was on the staff in 1996-97 when UNC had a combined record of 21-3 and finished ranked in the top 10 both seasons.

Browning was the head coach and athletic director at Northern Durham High School for 18 years. He posted a 178-35 record and won the 1993 4-A state title and Shrine Bowl. Over his last three years, Northern built a 43-2 record and he was named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 1992 and 1993. He became only the third coach to win both the state title and Shrine Bowl in the same year.

Browning and his wife, Susan, have three sons – Chuck, John and Joe.

JEFF CONNORS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
10TH SEASON AT UNC

Jeff Connors enters his 10th season as Carolina's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and his ninth as an assistant athletic director.

Connors has been honored as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa). The Master Strength & Conditioning Coach certification is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach, representing professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise and longevity in the field.

Connors has helped develop some of the top players in Carolina's program, including Julius Peppers, Jason Brown, Ronald Curry, David Thornton, Kentwan Balmer and Hakeem Nicks. In four years under Connors' direction, Balmer increased his overall strength and agility and became a first-round NFL draft choice.

During Connors' career at UNC, 73 of 77 all-time football strength and conditioning records have changed. In the past two offseasons, eight all-time 40-yard dash records (position specific) have been established in football.

Connors also maintains department-wide responsibilities. He previously conducted the strength and conditioning program for the UNC women's basketball team. During that period, the team won four ACC titles and made two Final Four appearances. Currently, Connors is training the UNC wrestling team. Connors has previous experience in wrestling as he trained the Bucknell wrestling program that produced four All-Americans.

Connors came to Carolina after spending 10 seasons as East Carolina's Director of Strength & Conditioning. Under Connors, the Pirates were one of the best fourth-quarter teams in the country. In 1996, the ECU defense did not allow a point in the fourth quarter until the seventh game of the season and in 1999, the Pirates outscored their opponents, 102-56, in the final period. In 2000, ECU had a 94-57 advantage in the fourth quarter.

Connors' was the head strength and conditioning coach at Bucknell prior to his experience at East Carolina.

The Connors Family: Michele, Jeff and Kaitlin (not pictured, Beau).

Date and Place of Birth: Born June 12, 1956, in Brownsville, Pa.

Family: Wife, Michele; daughter, Kaitlin; son, Beau

Education: Salem (W.Va.) College, 1980

Playing Experience: Salem (W.Va.) College, 1976-80, cornerback

Coaching Experience: 1981-83, Tennessee Military Institute (assistant coach/linebackers); 1983-87, The Benjamin School (assistant coach/offensive coordinator); 1987-90, Bucknell (head strength & conditioning); 1990-2000, East Carolina (director of strength & conditioning); 2001-present, North Carolina (assistant athletic director/strength & conditioning)

Connors is often asked to present his strength and conditioning program to clinics and conferences across the country. He presented UNC's speed and position specific package at the National CCSCa Conference and Midwest Sports Performance Conference in 2009.

Connors was a competitive powerlifter and has won four state titles in powerlifting and has been ranked as high as fourth nationally. He holds Level I certification in Olympic Weight Lifting by the U.S. Weight Lifting Federation.

A 1980 graduate of Salem (W. Va.) College, Connors was a four-year starter at cornerback and was team captain as a senior. He led Salem in interceptions as a sophomore and junior.

After college, Connors served as a police officer in South Florida for two years. Prior to becoming a strength coach, Connors coached high school football and wrestling at The Benjamin School in North Palm Beach, Fla., and he coached linebackers at the Tennessee Military Institute in Sweetwater, Tenn.

Connors and his wife, Michele, have a daughter, Kaitlin, and a son, Beau.

TROY DOUGLAS

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH SECOND SEASON AT UNC

Troy Douglas enters his second season as Carolina's defensive backs coach. He is in his 23rd season as a college coach, and has spent 21 seasons working in the defensive secondary. Douglas tutors the Tar Heel defensive backs along with defensive coordinator Everett Withers, his former teammate at Appalachian State.

Under Douglas' direction, Carolina's defensive backs have quickly developed into one of the top units in the country. Carolina combined to pick off 19 passes and returned them for a school-record 508 yards and four touchdowns in 2009. Two of Douglas' players - safety Deunta Williams and cornerback Kendric Burney - earned 2009 first-team All-ACC honors.

All four starters - Burney, Williams, cornerback Charles Brown and strong safety Da'Norris Scarey - return in 2010. Williams ranks tied for third in UNC history with 12 career interceptions, and Burney needs just 49 yards to set the ACC record for interception return yards.

Douglas came to Chapel Hill after serving three years as the defensive backs coach at South Florida. During his tenure in Tampa, USF earned three bowl bids and won 26 games.

At USF, Douglas played a major role in developing one of the nation's top defenses. In 2008, the Bulls finished 10th in the country in overall defense and in 2007, USF led the country in turnovers, interceptions and fumble recoveries. His secondary produced 17 of the 23 interceptions, including three by first team All-America Mike Jenkins, four by third team All-Big East safety Nate Allen and six by second team All-Big East corner Trae Williams. Jenkins was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft and Williams was picked in the fifth round by Jacksonville. Two more of Douglas' pupils were picked in the 2010 NFL Draft, including second-round pick Nate Allen and third-round selection Jerome Murphy.

Douglas also has coached at Indiana (2004-05), South Carolina State (2003), Michigan State (2001-2002), SMU (1997-2000), UTEP (1995-1996), East Tennessee State (1992-1994) and West Chester (1989-1991).

At Indiana, he coached cornerback Tracy Porter who became a second-round pick of the New Orleans Saints in 2008. Porter picked off a pass and returned it for a touchdown in last year's Super Bowl win over Indianapolis.

During his two years as the secondary coach at Michigan State, the Spartans still ranked 14th in the nation in pass defense despite losing four cornerbacks through the 2001 season.

In his one year at South

The Douglas Family: Taryn, Troy, Tanner and Rebecca

Carolina State, Douglas was instrumental in building a defense that led I-AA in pass efficiency defense.

At SMU, Douglas coached running backs for one season (1997) before moving to the defensive side of the ball. In 1998, SMU was ranked 14th nationally in defense.

In his two seasons at UTEP, Douglas coached the secondary in 1995 and running backs in 1996, after three seasons as the secondary coach at East Tennessee State. At ETSU, the Buccaneers ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency defense, and one of Douglas' players - Donnie Abraham - went on to a very successful career with the New York Jets that included a Pro Bowl appearance.

Douglas began a full-time coaching career as the defensive backs coach at West Chester (Pa.) in 1989, where he coached Lee Woodall, a Pro Bowl player in 1995 and 1997 as a San Francisco 49er.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Douglas was a four-year starter at wide receiver for Appalachian State from 1983-86. He led the team in receiving as a junior and senior. When he graduated, he ranked third all-time at ASU with 90 career receptions for 1,401 yards. He earned a bachelor's degree in communications arts (1988) and was a graduate assistant at his alma mater before his first full-time position at West Chester.

Douglas and his wife, Rebecca, have two children - Tanner and Taryn.

ART KAUFMAN

LINEBACKERS COACH
SECOND SEASON AT UNC

A 26-year coaching veteran, Art Kaufman enters his second season as Carolina's linebackers coach. He came to UNC after one season at Southern Miss, where he coached the defensive line and was the special teams coordinator.

Under his guidance, Carolina linebackers Quan Sturdivant (first team) and Bruce Carter (second team) earned All-ACC honors in 2009. Sturdivant led the team in tackles and was second in tackles for losses. In addition, Kevin Reddick quickly developed into a standout as a freshman and started the final seven games of the year at middle linebacker. All three starters return in 2010 and Sturdivant and Carter are ranked among the top five talents at their respective positions.

Carolina's linebackers helped lead a defense that finished first in the ACC and sixth in the nation in total defense. The Tar Heels were 10th in the nation against the run and finished 13th in scoring defense. Carolina was the only defense in the country to finish among the top 15 in total yards allowed, scoring, rushing, passing, pass efficiency, third down percentage and tackles for losses.

Kaufman, who has coached in nine bowl games, helped lead Southern Miss to a victory over Troy in the New Orleans Bowl in 2008. A former defensive coordinator at Mississippi, Kaufman also has coached at Middle Tennessee State, East Carolina, Arkansas Tech and Louisiana Tech.

Kaufman spent three seasons at Middle Tennessee as the Blue Raiders linebackers coach and two seasons as defensive line coach at East Carolina. Prior to joining the staff at ECU, Kaufman spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas Tech.

A 1980 graduate of the University of Arkansas at Monticello, Kaufman had two stints at Mississippi, coaching in Oxford for a total of 10 years. He spent six years as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Kaufman was a two-time All-America linebacker during his playing days at Arkansas-Monticello and followed his four-year career with the Boll Weevils by taking a graduate assistant position at Delta State University.

He earned his first full-time coaching job in 1983 when he became the outside linebackers coach at Northwestern State University (La.). In 1987, he was named defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northwestern State.

He left there the following year for Ole Miss to coach the Rebels' outside linebackers and defensive ends. While at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped guide the Rebels to back-to-back bowl appearances (1989 Liberty Bowl and 1991 Gator Bowl) for the first time since the 1970s.

Four years later, Kaufman was named the defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Louisiana Tech University, where he remained until returning to Ole Miss in 1995. In 1992, his defensive unit ranked in the top five nationally.

He again served as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for the next six years. During his second stint at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped the Rebels to four straight bowl berths (1997-2000), and his 1999 defense ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense.

A native of Dermott, Ark., Kaufman has three daughters: Tara, Taylor and Madison.

ALLEN MOGRIDGE

TIGHT ENDS COACH SECOND SEASON AT UNC

A former four-year letterwinner at North Carolina, Allen Mogridge returned to his alma mater in 2009 as the Tar Heels' tight ends coach after working seven seasons at the University at Buffalo.

Under Mogridge's tutelage in 2010, Zack Pianalto developed into one of the Tar Heels' top offensive weapons and one of the best tight ends in the conference. An honorable-mention All-ACC pick in 2009, Pianalto set the UNC single-season mark for catches by a tight end with 33 despite missing five games. Pianalto, along with seniors Ed Barham and Ryan Taylor, return in 2010.

Mogridge coached the offensive line for two seasons with the Bulls and was the team's running backs coach for three seasons. He also served as recruiting coordinator for head coach Turner Gill. In 2008, Buffalo won the MAC championship with a victory over heavily-favored Ball State and earned the school's second-ever bowl berth.

In his first season as Buffalo's offensive line coach in 2007, Mogridge mentored the Bulls' first ever All-MAC offensive linemen in center Jamey Richard and guard Jeff Niedermier. His offensive line paved the way for an offense that scored a Division I-A record 291 points, produced the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the Division I-A era (James Starks) and protected a quarterback that completed a school-record 258 passes (Drew Willy). Richard was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

In 2006, he coached freshman running back James Starks to a second-team All-MAC selection - the first time a UB freshman earned All-League honors.

The Mogridge Family: Allen, Livi, Izzy & Jenny

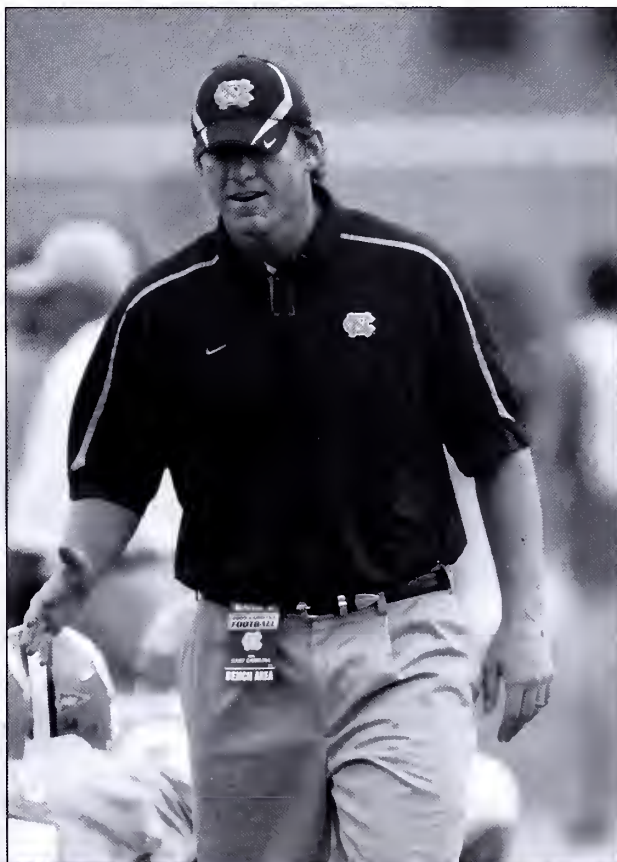

Mogridge had an excellent career at North Carolina where he lettered from 1996-99. He played four different positions - tight end, fullback, offensive tackle and defensive end - during his career and earned the Kenan Award for Leadership in his senior season. He went to four bowl games as a Tar Heel, including the 1996 and 1997 Gator Bowls. Carolina was a combined 21-3 over those two seasons and finished No. 4 in the final USA Today coaches poll in 1997.

Mogridge spent one year as a strength and conditioning coach at UNC while pursuing his masters degree. He spent the summer of 2000 in the Carolina Panthers training camp before playing for one year in the Arena Football League with the Carolina Cobras.

In his first stint at Buffalo he assisted all facets of the defense - helping the Bulls jump from near the bottom of total defense in the nation to 45th in 2001 - while focusing on the Bulls' defensive linemen.

He rejoined the Buffalo coaching staff in February of 2004 after one season at Western Carolina as the defensive ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

SAM PITTMAN

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
FOURTH SEASON AT UNC

Sam Pittman enters his fourth season as North Carolina's offensive line coach.

North Carolina had shown steady progress along the offensive line under Pittman despite a rash of injuries in 2009 and is poised for a breakout season in 2010. Last year, Carolina improved its running game and allowed just six sacks over last five games of the regular season.

The Tar Heels welcome back four starters in 2010 and have significant depth for the first time in many years. The only personnel losses are offensive tackle Kyle Jolly, who signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers, and center Lowell Dyer.

In 2008, Pittman helped develop offensive tackle Garrett Reynolds into a second-team all-conference selection. Reynolds consistently graded out as the team's top performer over his last two seasons, was named to the 2008 Lombardi Award watch list and was taken in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Reynolds was a key component in a line that helped Carolina produce its best running attack in four years, averaging 122.6 yards and rushing for 18 touchdowns.

Pittman came to Carolina after serving four seasons as Northern Illinois' offensive line coach (2003-06) and three years as its assistant head coach (2004-06). In 2006, the Huskies' offensive line paved the way for the nation's leading rusher, Garrett Wolfe, to run for more than 1,900 yards.

In four years at NIU, Pittman produced nine All-Mid-American Conference linemen, including seven first-team selections. NIU had a tailback top the 1,500-yard rushing mark all four years.

Pittman began his second term at Northern Illinois in 2003. That year, NIU finished 10-2 and beat Maryland and Iowa State and knocked off Alabama, 19-16, in Tuscaloosa. Pittman's line blocked for Michael Turner who finished second in the nation in rushing.

Pittman first coached at Northern Illinois from 1994-95 and produced a trio of All-Big West Conference talent, including All-America center Chris O'Neal. Pittman was the offensive line coach under John Blake at Oklahoma from 1996-98 where he coached first-round draft pick Stockar McDougle. Pittman has also worked with the offensive lines at Cincinnati (1996), Western Michigan (1999), Missouri (2000) and Kansas (2001).

Before NIU, Pittman produced an 11-9-1 record as head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College from 1992-93. His 1993 team earned the school's first bowl bid in 23 years at the Valley of the Sun Bowl in Phoenix.

Pittman began his career as a student coach at Pittsburg (Kan.) State University in 1984 and 1985. He moved to Beggs (Okla.) High School as an assistant in 1986, Princeton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1987-88 and Trenton (Mo.) High School as head coach in 1989-90.

At PSU, Pittman won four football letters, finished with 35 straight starts, and played in two postseason games at defensive end (1980-83). As a senior, he won first-team NAIA All-America, first-team All-Central States Intercollegiate Conference, team captain and co-MVP honors. In 1982, Pittman made first-team All-CSIC and team defensive MVP. In 1998, he was inducted into the Pittsburg State Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2004, he was voted to the school's All-Century squad.

Pittman received a bachelor's degree in education from PSU in 1986. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad of Pittsburg, Kan.

JOHN SHOOP

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR QUARTERBACKS COACH
FOURTH SEASON AT UNC

John Shoop enters his fourth season as North Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Shoop is in his 20th season as a coach, and has served as a coordinator on both the professional and college level.

Carolina players have flourished in Shoop's pro-style offense, including 2008 all-conference wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, who set 14 records at UNC and was drafted in the NFL first round last year. Quarterback T.J. Yates, an unknown commodity prior to the start of the 2007 season, is second all-time at UNC in passing yards, attempts, completions and completion percentage. Versatile athlete Greg Little has been a productive player at both wide receiver and tailback as Shoop always finds ways to get the ball to the team's top playmakers.

Last season, Carolina's offense improved throughout the year, averaging 28.4 points over the last seven games of the regular season.

Shoop came to Chapel Hill after serving two seasons with the Oakland Raiders. He was Oakland's quarterbacks coach in 2005, the tight ends coach in 2006 and was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games of the 2006 season.

Shoop spent the 2004 season as quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Jon Gruden. He worked five seasons (1999-2003) for the Chicago Bears under head coach Dick Jauron, including three as the offensive coordinator (2001-03). Shoop was promoted to Chicago's offensive coordinator position after spending the 1999-2000 seasons as the Bears quarterbacks coach. At the time, he was one of the youngest coordinators in NFL history.

In his first season as the coordinator in Chicago, Shoop revitalized the Chicago offense and helped lead the Bears to the NFC Central Division title with a 13-3 record. That season, tailback Anthony Thomas earned Offensive Rookie of the Year honors after setting a Bears' rookie rushing record with 1,183 yards, and quarterback Jim Miller had his most productive season as a pro.

Under Shoop's direction in 2002, the Bears offense produced Pro Bowl wide receiver Marty Booker, who became the first Chicago receiver to earn all-star game honors since 1971.

Prior to joining the Bears, Shoop spent four seasons with the Carolina Panthers, where he began his NFL coaching career at the age of 25. Shoop was an offensive quality control assistant for the Panthers in 1995-96 where he was a member of a staff that led the team to the NFC Championship Game in 1996. He was then promoted to quarterbacks coach, serving in that capacity for Carolina from 1997-98.

Shoop began his coaching career as a volunteer quarterbacks coach at Dartmouth in 1991, then served as a graduate assistant at Vanderbilt from 1992-94, where he also earned a master's degree in education.

A native of Oakmont, Pa., Shoop graduated from the University of the South in 1991, where he played quarterback for four seasons.

Shoop and his wife, the Rev. Dr. Marcia Mount Shoop, have a son, Sidney, a daughter, Mary Elizabeth and a godson, Chris Dixon. Shoop's brother, Bob, is the defensive coordinator at William & Mary College.

CHARLIE WILLIAMS

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
FOURTH SEASON AT UNC

Charlie Williams enters his fourth season as North Carolina's wide receivers coach. This is his second stint as an assistant with Butch Davis and his 25th season overall.

Williams has developed several outstanding players in his career, including some of the most prolific wide receivers in UNC history. Most recently, Greg Little became just the fifth UNC player to record more than 60 receptions in a single-season when he hauled in 62 for 724 yards and five touchdowns in 2009. Erik Highsmith was named to The Sporting News All-ACC Freshman team after 37 catches for 425 yards and two touchdowns.

Williams also was responsible for the development of 2008 first-team All-ACC wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, who finished his three-year Carolina career with 14 school records. Nicks set school records for career and single-season receiving yardage, and after a remarkable 217-yard performance in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, declared for the NFL Draft where he was selected in the first round (29th overall) by the New York Giants.

All three of Carolina's starting wide receivers in 2008 were selected in the NFL Draft, including Nicks, Brandon Tate and Brooks Foster.

Williams, who coached wide receivers with head coach Davis at the University of Miami, came to Carolina after serving as the University of Arizona's wide receivers coach from 2004-06.

The Williams Family: Charlie, Gregory, Jada, Sydney & Lisa

A 24-year coaching veteran, Williams spent six seasons as receivers coach with Tony Dungy and the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2001, tutoring standout performers such as Keyshawn Johnson, Reidel Anthony and Jacques Green. Johnson was chosen to play in three Pro Bowls while Williams was his position coach. The 2000 and 2001 Tampa Bay offenses set several franchise offensive records, and the team advanced to the playoffs four times during his tenure.

Prior to his NFL stint, Williams was wide receivers coach for three seasons at Miami, two under Dennis Erickson and one under Davis.

At Arizona, Williams developed Syndric Steptoe into a big-play threat. Steptoe was the Wildcats' leading receiver in 2006 with 55 receptions for 568 yards. Mike Thomas, Arizona's second-leading receiver in 2006 with 50 catches, set the freshman school record with 52 receptions in 2005.

Williams also coached one season for Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 2003, where he helped develop Troy Williamson into a 2005 first-round NFL draft pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

In 1993 and 1994, Williams coached Chris T. Jones, who led the Hurricanes in receiving both years and had a total of 90 catches for 1,462 yards. The 1993 Hurricanes (9-3) played Arizona in the Fiesta Bowl and Jones led Miami with six catches for 98 yards.

Williams was part of the 1994 Miami staff that led the Canes to a 10-2 finish and played Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Williams began his coaching career at Long Beach City College in 1984. He worked two years at New Mexico State (1986-87), four seasons at TCU (1988-91) and one year at Minnesota (1992) before joining the Miami program.

Williams played two years as a defensive back at Colorado State (1978-79). He and his wife Lisa, have two daughters, Sydney and Jada, and a son, Gregory.

EVERETT WITHERS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR SECONDARY COACH
THIRD SEASON AT UNC

Charlotte, N.C., native Everett Withers enters his third season as North Carolina's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Withers is in his 23rd season as a coach and has experience at both the professional and college level.

A year ago, the Tar Heels' defense was among the nation's elite, ranking sixth in total defense, 10th against the run, 13th in scoring defense and 14th in pass defense. Carolina was the only school in the country ranked in the top 15 in total yards allowed, scoring defense, run defense, pass defense, pass efficiency defense, third-down defense and tackles for losses. Six Carolina defenders were named all-conference, including first-team picks Robert Quinn, Quan Sturdivant, Kendrick Burney and Deunta Williams.

In addition to his duties as the coordinator, Withers oversees the defensive secondary, which has developed into one of the best units in the country. Carolina picked off 19 passes in 2009 and has 39 interceptions over the past two seasons. Last year, Carolina set a single-season ACC record with 508 interception return yards.

In 2008, the opportunistic Tar Heel defense ranked eighth in the country with 20 interceptions, just one shy of the school record.

Withers came to North Carolina after serving one season as the University of Minnesota's defensive coordinator in 2007.

Withers spent six seasons with the Tennessee Titans from 2001-06 under head coach Jeff Fisher. From 2002-04, Withers helped the Titans defense tally 57 interceptions, which was the most for the franchise over a three-year period since 1993-95. The 57 interceptions also ranked fourth in the AFC and eighth overall during that time. The Titans totaled 21 picks in 2004, including 16 by the secondary.

The Withers Family: Everett, Tia, Pierce and Kara

In 2002, Withers directed a revamped secondary that added safeties Lance Schulters and rookie Tank Williams. The new arrangement helped the defense earn a top 10 ranking and Schulters' six interceptions were the most by a Titans safety since 1993. Withers also developed Andre Dyson into a starter as a rookie in 2001 and helped him total 16 interceptions during his four-year Titan career, including six his final season.

Prior to working with the Titans, Withers was defensive backs coach under Mack Brown at Texas from 1998-2000, where he guided a Longhorns secondary which improved from 75th in the nation in pass defense in 1997 (132.7 efficiency rating) to first in the nation in 2000 (88.02). Withers is credited with helping a young corps of defensive backs improve in a number of statistical categories.

Withers joined the Longhorns after three seasons (1995-97) as defensive coordinator at Louisville. His 1996 defensive unit ranked fourth nationally in both total defense (235.8) and rushing defense (81.1) and led the NCAA in forced turnovers (41). While at Louisville, Withers helped current New York Giants All-Pro cornerback Sam Madison earn All-America honors for the Cardinals.

Withers' first National Football League experience came with the New Orleans Saints where he worked as defensive quality control in 1994. Prior to his experience with the Saints, Withers was defensive backs coach at Southern Mississippi for two seasons (1992-93) and outside linebackers coach at Tulane in 1991. The first three years of Withers' coaching career came at Austin Peay, where he was defensive coordinator (1988-89) and special teams/wide receivers coach (1990).

Withers earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He was also a standout defensive back and captain for the Mountaineers from 1981-85. Withers and his wife, Kara, have two children, Tia and Pierce.

COREY HOLLIDAY

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
10TH SEASON AT UNC
UNC LETTERWINNER, 1990-93

Corey Holliday, who played for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, is in his 10th year with the football program. He was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Administration in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Dick Baddour and head coach Butch Davis.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday graduated as the Carolina career record holder for most receiving yards (2,447), a mark he held until it was broken by Hakeem Nicks in 2008. Holliday is also fourth in career receptions. Holliday caught a pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93 and was a team co-captain as a junior and senior.

Holliday played four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC's Educational Foundation, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

He holds two degrees from North Carolina, including a B.S. in business administration in 1993 and a Master's in sports administration in 1997. Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

SCOTT TRULOCK

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Scott Trulock is in his fourth season as the team's Head Athletic Trainer for Football, where he heads a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants. Trulock and his staff work to keep Carolina's football student-athletes healthy and to rehabilitate any injuries quickly and successfully.

Trulock came to Carolina after spending 11 years in the National Football League. He served as the assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos on Mike Shanahan's staff from 2004-06. Previously, he was the director of rehabilitation in Tampa Bay under head coach Jon Gruden from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when Tampa Bay knocked off the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Trulock began his career as assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98 and also worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001.

While working in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFTAS). Within the Society, he served as the director of research for the PFATS Research and Education Foundation. In this role, he was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. In addition, Trulock has presented at many local, state, and national meetings.

The return to Carolina is a homecoming of sorts for Trulock, as he received his Master's degree in athletic training from UNC in 1996. The position with the Football program presented him the opportunity to re-join one of the top sports medicine programs in the country. Actively involved in research since his days as a student at Carolina, Trulock utilizes the full complement of physicians, faculty and researchers in the sports medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Trulock earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine at Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

JOE HAYDON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
SEVENTH SEASON AT UNC

Joe Haydon enters his seventh year with the Tar Heels and fifth as the team's director of operations. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006. Haydon is married to the former Melissa Mecham.

MARCUS BERRY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
SECOND SEASON AT UNC

Marcus Berry joined the football program in 2009 and is in his second season as Carolina's Director of Player Personnel. In that role, Berry helps coordinate Carolina's recruiting efforts, working closely with associate head coach John Blake. He helps arrange and manage on-campus recruiting visits and promotes and markets the high school coaches clinic and summer camps.

A native of Cleveland, Berry played football at West Virginia and graduated in 1990 with a degree in sports management. He worked four years for the NBA's Washington Bullets as an account manager in the ticket and sponsorship department. He then worked two years in the insurance and banking industry before joining the coaching staff at Friendly High School in Ft. Washington, Md. Berry served 11 years at Friendly where he also taught history, health and physical education. Friendly won three state championships during his tenure.

Berry completed two NFL player personnel and scouting internships, one with the Green Bay Packers in 2003 and another with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2007. Berry resides in Durham, N.C.

ANDRE WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL STU-DENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT
FIFTH SEASON AT UNC
UNC LETTERWINNER, 2000-01

Andre' Williams, a former Tar Heel tailback, is in his fifth year as Carolina's Director of Football Student-Athlete Development. In that role, Williams works with the players in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing, community service projects and as a liaison with the academic support program and compliance office.

Williams lettered at Carolina in 2000 and 2001 before a back injury forced him to stop playing football. He was the Tar Heels' leading rusher in 2001, when Carolina went 8-5 and won the Peach Bowl over Auburn. He also earned Academic All-ACC honors in 2001.

Williams graduated from Carolina in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in management and society. He worked one year for the Atlantic Coast Conference office before returning to Chapel Hill to earn a Master's degree in sports administration. Williams is married to the former Shayla Higginbotham.

JARED POWERS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH OFFENSE FIRST SEASON AT UNC

Jared Powers enters his first season as a graduate assistant coach on the offensive side of the ball.

Powers came to Carolina after serving two seasons at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas where he was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. He began his coaching career as the running backs coach at Worcester Poly Tech in Worcester, Mass., in 2004. He then worked one spring season at Averett University in Danville, Va., as the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach. In the fall of 2005, he became the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Dodge City Community College in Kansas where he served until January, 2008.

A native of North Port, Fla., Powers was a three-year letterwinner from 2001-03 at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. Powers played center, guard and tackle and graduated in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in communications.

Powers is single and lives in Durham, N.C.

CHRIS VAN HORN

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH DEFENSE
THIRD SEASON AT UNC

Chris Van Horn is in his third season at Carolina and first as a graduate assistant coach on the defensive side of the ball. Van Horn worked the previous two years at UNC in player development beginning in 2008.

Van Horn was a three-year letterwinner at St. Francis University in his hometown of Ft. Wayne, Ind. He was an NAIA All-America at defensive end and earned bachelor's degrees in elementary education and special education in 2004.

Van Horn worked three seasons at St. Francis before joining the Carolina staff. He was a graduate assistant on defense in 2005 and 2006 and was elevated to defensive line coach in 2007.

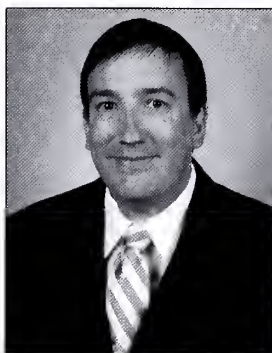

Van Horn is single and lives in Carrboro, N.C.

DICK BADDOUR

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
44TH YEAR AT UNC
14TH YEAR AS ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Goldsboro native and Tar Heel alumnus Dick Baddour is in his 14th year as Director of Athletics and his 44th at the University of North Carolina. He directs one of the most successful and respected programs in the country, known for its commitment to academic integrity and competitive excellence in men's and women's sports.

Baddour has the second-longest current tenure among Atlantic Coast Conference athletic directors and is one of three to serve as Carolina's director for 10 or more years since the Tar Heels joined the league in 1954.

Under his direction, the Tar Heels have won 13 national championships, including seven in women's soccer, three in field hockey, two in men's basketball and one in men's soccer, won two football bowl games and had numerous Top 10 national finishes in Olympic Sports. Nineteen UNC men's and women's teams have combined for 62 ACC championships, more than any other school in that time. UNC has led the league in the number of team championships seven times.

Last year, Carolina won national championships in field hockey and women's soccer and reached the national semifinals in men's soccer, women's lacrosse and women's tennis. Twenty-four of 28 sports competed in post-season play. The Tar Heels finished seventh nationally in the Learfield Directors Cup. Overall, Carolina has averaged a seventh-place finish in the Directors Cup and finished first among ACC schools 10 times in Baddour's 13 years at the helm.

The seventh-place finish in the Directors Cup marked the eighth top 10 finish by the Tar Heels in the last nine years, including top four showings in 2006, 2007 and 2009. By comparison, the other 11 ACC schools have combined for eight top 10 finishes in the 17-year history of the Directors Cup.

Academically, 23 of Carolina's sports exceeded the national average in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rating. Six programs scored a perfect 1,000 in the APR over the last four years and 13 scored a perfect 1,000 in 2008-09. The APR accounts for eligibility, retention and graduation and provides a measure of each team's academic performance.

Carolina baseball, men's basketball, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's fencing, women's golf, gymnastics and volleyball rank in the Top 10 percent nationally in their respective sports. Men's basketball, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's golf and volleyball had the highest APRs in the Atlantic Coast Conference in their respective sports for the four-year period from 2005-06 to 2008-09.

Baddour emphasizes academic achievement and the overall student experience. Last year, 266 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, 277 earned Dean's List honors over the two semesters and eight different programs finished the spring with a cumulative grade point average of better than 3.0.

The 2008-09 season was one of the finest in Carolina history as the Tar Heels finished second nationally in the Learfield Directors Cup. Women's soccer and men's basketball won NCAA championships, men's soccer and women's lacrosse reached the NCAA finals, baseball advanced to the College World Series for the fourth year in a row and football played in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. UNC became the first school in ACC history to play in the men's basketball Final Four, the College World Series and a football bowl game in the same year.

Six years ago, Baddour created the Carolina Leadership Academy, a training program for student-athletes, coaches and administrators. The program develops leadership skills through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources. Carolina's coaches consider the program an overwhelming success and it is a model for schools across the nation.

Baddour has hired head coaches in 11 sports, including Roy Williams, Butch Davis and Mike Fox, overseen renovations or created plans to update virtually every facility in the athletic complex, expanded the direction and staffing for student-athlete services and worked tirelessly to set the program on sound financial footing.

Baddour has made it a top priority to ensure the athletic department stays financially stable. His efforts to put together a plan and financial model to renovate Kenan Stadium have resulted in phase I being completed by adding a fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center and phase II getting approval from the Board of Trustees in May 2010. Phase II includes the Carolina Center for Student-Athlete Excellence, a five-story privately financed structure that will house the academic support center for student-athletes, the Carolina Leadership Academy, Olympic sports' strength and conditioning center, visiting locker room, club seats and individual suites. The Center for Excellence not only provides much needed space for academic support for all 28 of Carolina's varsity programs, it also creates an additional revenue stream through the sale of premium seats that will provide future revenue for the department.

The athletic department and Rams Club raised nearly $300 million over the last 10 seasons in support of the Carolina First campaign, increasing the scholarship endowment to where it is the largest for a public school in the country. Baddour developed funding models for facility enhancement projects, scholarships and operating budgets. He negotiated partnerships with Nike to outfit the athletic program, with Learfield Communications to direct UNC's multi-media properties, with Wachovia for on-site sponsorship in the Smith Center and Aramark for concessions. The Nike deal was widely praised as one of the most socially conscious contracts of its kind with respect to global labor issues.

Baddour has overseen a number of facility enhancements throughout his tenure. Last year, Carmichael Arena re-opened after a $30 million renovation and the Stallings-Evans Sports Medicine Center, a facility that is open to student-athletes and the student body at large for sports injury rehabilitation, opened in the spring. Boshamer Stadium re-opened in 2009 after a $25 million renovation and has been received as one of the top baseball facilities in the country. The athletic department and Rams Club moved into the Ernie Williamson Athletics Center in 2007 and the Carolina Basketball Museum opened its doors in early 2008.

Baddour began his UNC career in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. He served as Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement.

Baddour spent 11 years as John Swofford's top assistant before being named the Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In 2001, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have three children. Allen, a superior court judge for Orange and Chatham Counties, and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Henry and Jack; David, an attorney with RTP-based Womble-Carlyle, and his wife, Carey, have two daughters, Lauren and Julia, and son, Johnathan; Jennifer, a family therapist in private practice in Cary, and her husband, Kevin Snead, have a son, William, and a daughter, Lynley.

HOLDEN THORP

CHANCELLOR

AT CAROLINA, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, led a powerhouse chemistry department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies, and succeeded as an administrator.

Now, as the 10th chancellor, Thorp draws from all of those experiences in leading Carolina, which is among the great research universities in the United States and the world.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in Carolina traditions dating to the 1800s. When graduation from Terry Sanford High School approached, there was only one school on his college application list—UNC. He earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university—where research and teaching are done by the same people—gave Thorp opportunities to work in chemistry labs with some of UNC's best faculty. Those experiences inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After teaching a year at NC State, he returned to UNC in 1993.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success and position them to lead us," he says.

The University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both—and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state," Thorp says.

Before becoming chancellor in 2008, Thorp served a year as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He chaired the chemistry department, led a $17 million fundraising effort for the Carolina Physical Science Complex as faculty director and was director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center.

Thorp serves on a new U.S. Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative for the Council on Competitiveness, a group of CEOs, university presidents and labor leaders working to ensure U.S. prosperity in a global economy. He is also a member of the Champions' Board of Teach for America, which aims to end educational inequity across the nation, as well as the Associations' Patent Reform Task Force, an advisory body to six associations representing higher education in a Congressional effort to reform patent law. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA. He invented technology for electronic DNA chips that led to 19 issued or pending U.S. patents.

Thorp co-authored a new book, "Engines of Innovation—The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," with Buck Goldstein, University Entrepreneur in Residence. The UNC Press book makes the case for the pivotal role of

Our biggest contribution to North Carolina is sending bright, capable young people to communities across the state to become the next generation of leaders.

research universities as agents of societal change. All royalties will support innovation and entrepreneurship at the University.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

Keep up with Chancellor
Thorp's chronicles of
Carolina on his blog,

The Rams Club — A Need for Growth

The cost of competing at the highest level and educating outstanding student-athletes continues to climb. The Rams Club must grow its membership and level of support to keep Carolina as one of the nation's premier athletics programs both athletically and academically.

The Rams Club has witnessed impressive growth over the past several years—51% of members have joined within the last 10 years. Membership in The Rams Club is available through endowment and annual gifts. Gifts of all sizes are important—47% of all Annual Fund gifts are between $100 and $1,000. This growth must continue to meet the escalating needs of Carolina's 28 varsity sports and its student-athletes.

As a member of The Rams Club, you provide a vital component to the success of Tar Heel student-athletes. Your membership provides Carolina student-athletes the opportunity to proudly say, "I'm a Tar Heel."

Annual Fund

Donations through the Annual Fund offers The Rams Club the opportunity to meet immediate funding needs—primarily the funds needed to bridge the difference between the endowment's yield and the actual scholarship costs and other important projects for Carolina's student-athletes.

Scholarship Endowment

The Rams Club's Scholarship Endowment Trust is the largest athletic scholarship endowment in the nation. The Scholarship Endowment Trust is built upon gifts from Carolina supporters who have endowed Full or Half Scholarships in support of student-athletes which provide in perpetuity the support to a broad-based athletics program.

Carolina Forever — Planned Giving

As the Rams Club's planned giving program, Carolina Forever offers donors an opportunity to make a lasting impact by involving Carolina Athletics in their estate planning. Carolina Forever's mission is to ensure that the university continues to provide in perpetuity the unique opportunity to experience what it means to be a Tar Heel student-athlete in a broad-based athletics program.

Sports Endowments

The Sport Endowments program provides additional funding for the operating budgets of each of the 28 sports. Donors can make gifts to an individual sport with the yield from that trust made available to the appropriate coach for use in budget-enhancing activities like recruiting, team travel, assistant coaches' salaries and more. With the gifts designated into an endowment, these gifts will provide a continuous stream of usable income in perpetuity.

I'M A TAR HEEL

I'M A TAR HEEL. It's a simple statement—a phrase that can mean something different for each person who says it. Underlying it is a thread common to each member of the Carolina Family. That underlying thread is the commitment each Tar Heel has to do things the Carolina Way—with great integrity, a dedication to fellow Tar Heels, an unwavering loyalty to Carolina, and a commitment to excellence.

The Carolina Way also entails a commitment to excellence—a commitment that is unrivaled elsewhere. It is evident in Carolina's 37 team national championships, 54 individual national championships, and numerous conference titles. It is evident in the classroom as Carolina boasts an outstanding 85 percent graduation rate among student-athletes. It is evident in the community as Tar Heel student-athletes and staff performed more than 20,000 hours of community service last year.

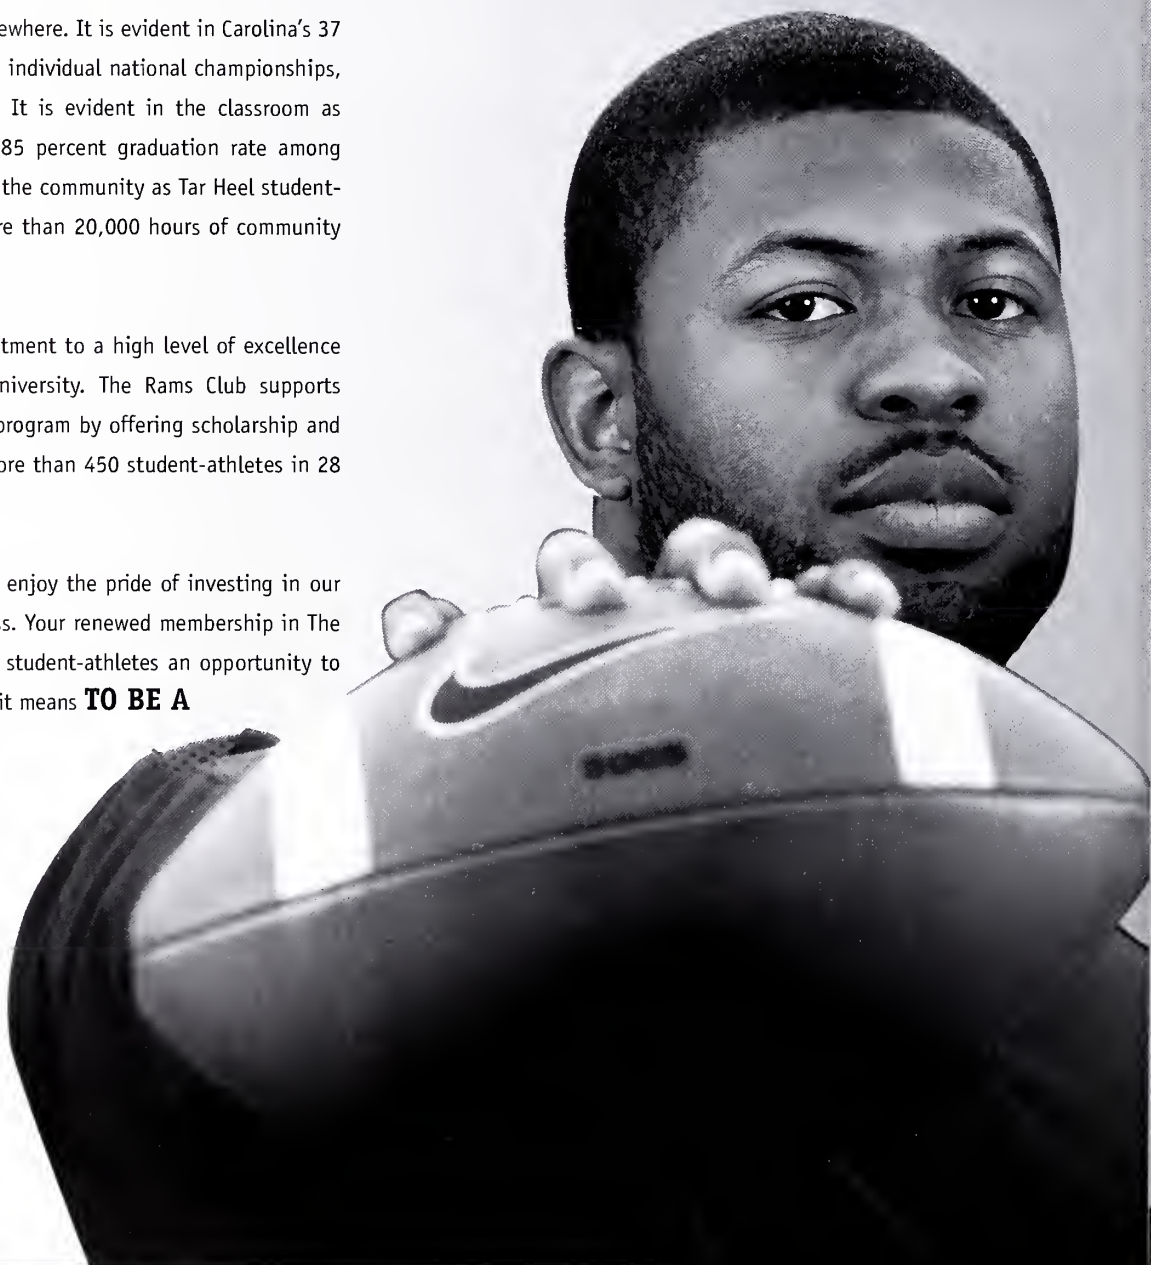

The Rams Club shares the commitment to a high level of excellence that is characteristic of this University. The Rams Club supports Carolina's broad-based athletics program by offering scholarship and program support assistance to more than 450 student-athletes in 28 varsity sports each year.

As a Rams Club member, you can enjoy the pride of investing in our student-athletes and their success. Your renewed membership in The Rams Club gives our outstanding student-athletes an opportunity to give their own definition of what it means TO BE A TAR HEEL.

To come to such a great university with a rich history and tradition means the world to me. I will always cherish the amazing times I've had here at Carolina. I am forever grateful for the opportunity to come to the best university in the nation. I love Carolina!
I'm Deunta Williams, and I'm a Tar Heel.

KENAN STADIUM

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 60,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact. The addition of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the North Side Stadium Preferred Seating Box in 1997 have further enhanced the stadium's status as a campus landmark.

The Kenan Football Center houses the Carolina football program, including the locker rooms, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

In May, 2010, the UNC Board of Trustees approved the Carolina Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, a five-story privately financed structure that will be built in Kenan Stadium's east end zone to house the academic support center for student-athletes, the Carolina Leadership Academy, Olympic sports' strength and conditioning center, visiting locker room, club seats and individual suites.

Construction has already begun on the project that is expected to take roughly 15 months to complete in time for the start of the 2011 football season. The additional seats in the end zone, named the Blue Zone, offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project adds 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project will also tie the north and south concourses together and will provide the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

For more information and photos of the Carolina Student-Athlete Center for Excellence, please visit NewKenan.com.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/

Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, ties the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center, making fan movement around the stadium much easier. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts.

Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box are the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf includes an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the North Side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 249-162-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in the third game played there as Carolina whipped Wake Forest, 65-0, in the 1928 season opener.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997 and 60,000 in 1998.

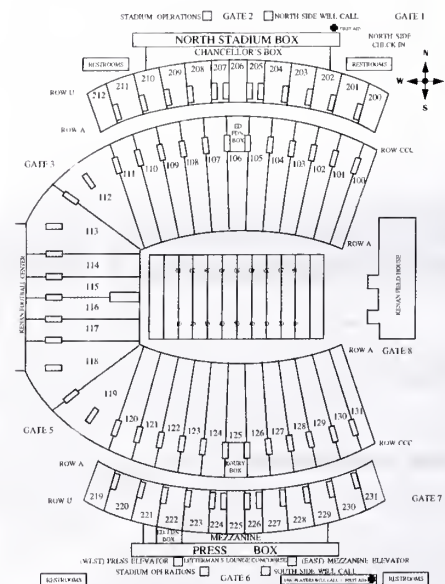

At the East end of the stadium is the Kenan Fieldhouse, home of the Student-Athlete Development Center. A 20,000 square foot building, it is a one-of-a-kind facility. For study purposes, it contains a language lab, video room, computer lab, theatre-style lecture hall, several reading rooms and numerous tutorial rooms. UNC's academic counseling staff has the advantage of using the most modern techniques in assisting student-athletes.

Capacity crowds have come to be expected at Kenan. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record-shattering crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

CAROLINA

2010 FOOTBALL

2009 REVIEW

TAR HEELS POST BACK-TO-BACK EIGHT-WIN SEASONS

• North Carolina finished 8-5 for the second consecutive season. Carolina's 16 wins over the last two years are the most by a Tar Heel team since posting 21 victories in 1996 and 1997. Only Virginia Tech (19), Georgia Tech (19) and Boston College (17) have had more wins in the ACC over the last two seasons.

• Carolina advanced to a bowl game for consecutive seasons for the first time since 1997-1998.

SUCCESS AGAINST RANKED TEAMS

• Dating back to 2008, the Tar Heels had won five straight against teams ranked the AP Top 25 Poll prior to the loss to No. 17 Pittsburgh in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. In 2008, Carolina posted wins over No. 24 Connecticut, No. 23 Boston College and No. 22 Georgia Tech. In 2009, Carolina knocked off No. 14 Virginia Tech in Blacksburg on Oct. 29 and defeated No. 12 Miami on Nov. 7. The 2009 win over Miami is the highest ranked team Carolina has defeated since a 31-28 win over No. 4 Miami in 2004.

• The last time Carolina defeated two Top-15 teams in the same season was 2001 when the Tar Heels knocked off No. 6 Florida State, 41-9, and No. 13 Clemson, 38-3. The 2009 season was the third time in school history Carolina defeated two top 15 teams in the same season. The others were 1957 and 1979.

NINE PLAYERS EARN ALL-ACC HONORS

• Nine North Carolina football players, including four first-team defensive selections, were named to the 2009 All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams as selected by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSM). Defensive end Robert Quinn, linebacker Quan Sturdivant, cornerback Kendrick Burney and safety Deunta Williams earned first-team honors, while linebacker Bruce Carter, defensive tackle Marvin Austin and place-kicker Casey Barth were named to the second team. Tight end Zack Pinalto and offensive tackle Kyle Jolly were honorable-mention picks.

• Carolina's four first-team selections were the most by the Tar Heels since placing six on the 1997 all-conference squad. Carolina had not had four defensive players make first team since 1997 when five were honored. The 209 season was the first year since 2002 that the Tar Heels had a defensive first-team all-conference selection.

• Quinn, a sophomore from Ladson, S.C., had the second-highest vote total of any defensive player after finishing the season with 19 tackles for losses, including 11 sacks. Quinn ranked first in the ACC in tackles for losses, second in sacks and second in forced fumbles with six. He was the first defensive end to earn first-team All-ACC honors at UNC since Julius Peppers in 2001.

• Sturdivant, a junior from Oakboro, N.C., was the first Tar Heel linebacker to earn first-team all-conference honors since Kivusama Mays in 1997. For the second straight season, Sturdivant led the Tar Heels in tackles, finishing with 75, including 12 for loss, which ranked sixth in the conference.

• Williams and Burney, both juniors from Jacksonville, N.C., took two of the four all-conference defensive backfield spots. Burney had 48 tackles and five interceptions for 200 yards and two touchdowns. He ranks second all-time in the ACC in interception return yardage and holds the UNC career record for interception returns for touchdowns with three. Burney was the first UNC cornerback to earn first-team all-league honors since Robert Williams and Dre' Bly in 1997. Williams had a team-high six interceptions for 114 yards and finished the regular season with 41 tackles.

• A native of Washington, D.C., Austin had 40 tackles, including six tackles for losses and four sacks. He was joined on the second-team defensive squad by Carter, who was second on the team with 61 tackles, including seven for losses. Barth became the first kicker at UNC since Jeff Reed in 2000 to earn all-conference honors after making 20 of 24 attempts, including 16 in a row at one point this season.

• Despite missing four games to a foot injury, Pinalto was one of the top tight ends in the league with 31 receptions for 308 yards and a touchdown. Jolly graded out as the team's top offensive lineman and had 31 knockdown blocks on the season.

• In the last two seasons, Carolina has had 16 all-conference selections, the most in any two-year period since 1996-97 (22).

CAROLINA DEFENSE RANKED NO. 6 IN THE COUNTRY

• North Carolina was ranked in the top 15 in the country in all four major defensive categories. The Tar Heels were No. 6 in total defense (269.6 avg.), No. 10 in rushing defense (95.6 avg.), 13th in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 14th in passing defense (174.0 avg.). The last time North Carolina finished ranked in the nation's top 10 in total defense was 1997, when the Tar Heels were No. 2.

• Carolina's run defense held nine of 12 regular season opponents under 100 yards on the season. Duke rushed for just 12 yards, the fewest by a UNC opponent in 2009 (previous 30 by The Citadel). It was the fewest since Wake Forest had minus-two yards in 2000. In the final six games of the regular season vs. Florida State (43 rushing yards), Virginia Tech (95), Duke (12), Miami (116), Boston College (97) and NC State (76), Carolina held its opponents to 73.2 rushing yards per game.

• Carolina's defense held eight of its 12 regular season opponents under 270 yards, including five to fewer than 200 yards.

• The Tar Heels held eight of 12 regular season opponents to 17 points or less this season. Carolina posted a second-half shutout at Boston College in a 31-13 win. UNC held Duke to just six points and shut out the Blue Devils in the second half. A week earlier, Carolina shut out Virginia Tech in the first half and held the Hokies to 17 points. Carolina allowed a season-high 24 points twice this season – in a 24-7 loss at Georgia Tech and a 33-24 win vs. Miami.

• The last time Carolina allowed less than 300 total yards per game was in 1997, when UNC's defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in all major statistical categories.

2009 GAME REVIEWS

Carolina 40, The Citadel 6
September 5, 2009
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes in the decisive first half, and No. 21 North Carolina routed The Citadel 40-6 on Saturday night.

Ryan Houston had touchdown runs of 5 and 3 yards, and Shoun Draughn rushed for 118 yards while helping the Tar Heels roll up 375 yards total offense. They had a 261-30 advantage on the ground.

Da'Norris Searcy returned a late punt 77 yards for a touchdown. Yates was 9 of 20 for 114 yards in three quarters, with scoring passes of 18 yards to Johnny White and 21 yards to Greg Little for the Tar Heels.

They played their first opener as a ranked team since they were No. 12 in 1998, and were upset 13-10 by Miami of Ohio. This one was nowhere near that close, after a second quarter in which North Carolina scored on four straight possessions.

The halftime stat sheet was all Tar Heels: They led 23-0, outgained the Bulldogs 204-73, held a 108-16 advantage in yards rushing and forced four turnovers.

Bort Blanchard was 21 of 37 for 117 yards for The Citadel, but threw three first-half interceptions. Two were picked off by Deunta Williams - including one in the end zone that thwarted the Bulldogs' best chance for a touchdown.

At least The Citadel kept things closer than it did its last time out - a 70-19 loss to eventual national champion Florida in last year's finale. That wasn't much consolation for a Championship Subdivision team looking to beat one of the big boys for the first time since 1992.

This was a punishing all-around effort from the Tar Heels. They entered coach Butch Davis' third season hoping to take the next step toward becoming an annual contender in the Atlantic Coast Conference - but also looking for a way to replace three receivers taken in the NFL draft.

Yates capped the Tar Heels' second possession of the second quarter with his scoring pass to White to make it 10-0, before hooking up with Little shortly before halftime for the play of the game.

Yates was flushed right but found Little outside the hush marks. The one-time running back spun around one defender and shook off three arm tackles while cutting back across the field for his first receiving touchdown since 2007.

Carolina 12, Connecticut 10
September 12, 2009
Rentschler Field • East Hartford, Conn.

HARTFORD (AP) - No. 19 North Carolina won 12-10 at Connecticut after defensive end Robert Quinn was held in the end zone with 1:32 left in the game giving the Tar Heels a safety.

The Tar Heels (2-0) trailed 10-0 entering the fourth quarter, when Casey Barth kicked a 22-yard field goal. Then, T.J. Yates led the team on a 13-play drive, and his 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Zack Pinalta with 2:36 left tied the game at 10. Pinalta hurt his leg jumping up after the score and had to be taken from the field in an air cast, another bizarre moment from a game that ended in crazy fashion.

After the safety, UConn recovered the onside kick but couldn't get into field-goal range, allowing North Carolina to improve to 3-0 against the Huskies. UConn has just one win in 13 games against Top 25 opponents.

UConn's stifling defense held North Carolina scoreless and with just 134 yards of offense through three quarters. The Huskies seemed poised for an upset after cornerback Robert McClain batted Yates' pass into the hands of Twyon Martin at the Tar Heels 26 late in the third quarter.

UConn tailback Jordan Todman dragged several defenders the final four yards for the score, putting the Huskies up 10-0.

Yates, who completed 23 of 32 passes for 233 yards and two interceptions, found his groove in the fourth quarter. He led the Tar Heels on a 78-yard drive that ended with Barth's field goal, and when UNC got the ball back, he marched 78-yards again, eating up 6:36 before finding Pinalta in the end zone from 2-yards out.

While the Huskies held North Carolina to just 65 yards in the first half, and pressured Yates all day, North Carolina's defense held UConn to just 196 yards, and dominated the Huskies in the fourth quarter.

UConn got the ball at the 20 after the fying touchdown, but a snap over backup quarterback Cody Endres' head on second down put the ball at the 8-yard line.

Endres scrambled away from the pass rush on third down, and completed a 16-yard pass to Todman that would have given the Huskies a fourth-and-6. But there was the flag in the end zone, and the safety that gave North Carolina the lead.

Carolina 31, East Carolina 17
September 20, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - T.J. Yates threw for two touchdowns while freshman receiver Erik Highsmith had a big game to help No. 24 North Carolina beat East Carolina 31-17.

Highsmith had six catches for 113 yards and a score for the Tar Heels, who are off to their first 3-0 start since winning the first eight games in 1997. His big day included a pair of key catches to move the chains on the Tar Heels' clock-draining drive that ended with Ryan Houston's 5-yard score with 1:58 left in the game.

Jheronie Boyd also had a juggling 59-yard touchdown grab for his first collegiate catch, and North Carolina got a solid all-around effort from its young offense to complement another strong performance from its defense.

East Carolina (1-2) got a touchdown catch from Jamar Bryant and a TD run from Dwayne Morris, but finished with just 247 total yards.

Yates completed 19 of 24 passes for 227 yards while spreading the ball around to several talented but unproven receivers. Highsmith came up with a 16-yard touchdown catch for North Carolina's first score, while fellow rookie Boyd hauled in Yates' deep ball to make it 14-7 in the second quarter.

Highsmith was particularly impressive, starting with a 16-yard catch for North Carolina's first score. But he made his biggest plays in the fourth quarter after the Pirates had closed to within 24-17. First he took a quick out from T.J. Yates and sprinted 43 yards for first down. Two plays later, Yates rolled to his left and found Highsmith again for a 10-yard gain and another first down that ultimately led to Houston's second score.

In perhaps a good omen, Highsmith became the first true freshman to crack the 100-yard mark here since Nicks did it three times in 2006.

The offensive line, which played without injured senior center Lowell Dyer, also opened up enough running lanes for Houston and Shoun Draughn. Houston's 1-yard score late in the first half put North Carolina ahead for good at 21-14, while Draughn ran 19 times for 84 yards.

The Pirates handed Butch Davis his first loss as North Carolina's coach in 2007 with a lost-play field goal in Greenville. Patrick Pinkney threw for 406 yards and three touchdowns in that game, but threw for just 157 yards and a touchdown in this one. He got no help from the rushing attack, either; East Carolina had 55 yards on 30 carries against the Tar Heels' defensive front.

Georgia Tech 24, Carolina 7
September 26, 2008
Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA (AP) - Josh Nesbitt ran for two touchdowns and Georgia Tech held the ball for 42 minutes, its highest total in 13 years, to beat No. 22 North Carolina 24-7.

Georgia Tech (3-1, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) opened in a 4-3 scheme instead of the 4-2-5 it ran last week. The third linebacker helped; the Yellow Jackets held North Carolina (3-1, 0-1) to 154 yards on only 44 plays.

Georgia Tech held the ball for 42 minutes, 6 seconds--its best mark since a 1996 win over Wake Forest.

Jonathan Dwyer ran for 158 yards in his first 100-yard game of the season. He showed no sign of the shoulder injury that limited him to five carries for 7 yards against Miami.

Nesbitt added a career-high 32 carries for 97 yards. Georgia Tech had 317 yards rushing in its spread-option offense while holding North Carolina to 17.

North Carolina's only touchdown came on Yates' 40-yard pass to Erik Highsmith early in the fourth quarter.

Georgia Tech then put the game away with a 17-play, 76-yard touchdown drive, capped by Nesbitt's 10-yard run. The drive lasted 8:15.

Burnett's second interception ended North Carolina's first drive with 1:34 remaining.

Georgia Tech did not commit a turnover. It was a reversal from last year, when North Carolina won 28-7 in Chapel Hill as the Yellow Jackets were hurt by two lost fumbles, an interception, two missed field goals and two failed fourth-down conversions.

Georgia Tech extended its lead after a Tar Heels turnover. Yates lined up in the shotgun but wasn't looking for the snap when the ball shot past him. Georgia Tech defensive end Derrick Morgan recovered the fumble at the North Carolina 32, setting up Scott Blair's 34-yard field goal for a 10-0 halftime lead.

The kickers combined to miss three field goals of under 40 yards. North Carolina's Casey Barth was wide right on a 32-yard attempt. Blair missed tries of 37 yards in the first quarter and 27 yards in the third quarter.

There was light rain in the second half. Fans were cautioned of lightning in the area at the start of the fourth quarter and told they could re-enter the stadium if they chose to leave. Most fans remained until the rain became heavy in the final minutes.

Virginia 16, Carolina 3
October 3, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Mikell Simpson ran for the game-clinching touchdown in the fourth quarter while Virginia's defense turned in a dominating performance to beat North Carolina 16-3 on Saturday.

Robert Randolph kicked three field goals for the Cavaliers (1-3, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who came out of a bye week with a desperately needed win after a terrible start to the season. Simpson added 100 yards rushing, but the Cavs didn't need much offense considering the way their defense completely locked down on the Tar Heels (3-2, 0-2).

North Carolina got nothing from its rushing attack, committed three turnovers and managed just 174 total yards. And when Simpson ran it in from 8 yards out with 5:49 left, Virginia had a two-possession lead that sent most of the light blue-clad Tar Heel fans bolting for the Kenan Stadium exits.

The Tar Heels came into the season facing several questions about their offense and knowing that their defense would have to carry the load. The defense did its part for most of the day, with Robert Quinn tallying three sacks and Virginia managing just 254 total yards. But the offense turned in a bad performance for the second straight week, failing to reach the end zone against a defense that was allowing 31 points per game coming in.

It wasn't the kind of performance the Tar Heels expected from a team that was nationally ranked just two weeks ago before a 24-7 loss at Georgia Tech. But for the Cavaliers, it was exactly what they needed after a tumultuous opening month of the season that had led to speculation about coach Al Groh's future.

Virginia had lost at home to Championship Subdivision team William & Mary in the opener, then followed that with a home loss to TCU. The Cavaliers then scrapped some of the spread offense they had installed in the preseason before the Southern Mississippi game and led by 17 points halftime before falling 37-34.

Now the Cavaliers have won 10 of 12 meetings against their cross-border rivals, including all three since Butch Davis took over in Chapel Hill in 2007.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Ryan Houston rushed for three touchdowns and Quan Sturdivant returned a fumble 49 yards for a scare, one of six turnovers forced by North Carolina during a 42-12 rout of Georgia Southern on Saturday.

Bruce Carter brought back an interception 41 yards for a TD and the defense set up two quick scoring drives with takeaways for North Carolina (4-2).

Houston scored on rushes of 1, 1 and 7 yards. Shaun Draughn added a 16-yard touchdown run for the Tar Heels, who held the Eagles to 170 total yards and 75 through the air.

Adam Urbana had a 45-yard TD rush - the longest allowed this season by North Carolina's stingy defense - for the Eagles (3-3).

The Tar Heels managed only a combined 10 points in consecutive losses to Georgia Tech and Virginia that dropped them out of the national rankings and into last place in the ACC's Coastal Division.

Turned out, a timely visit from another outmanned Football Championship Subdivision opponent was just what they needed, building a 42-7 halftime lead - their highest-scoring first half in nine years.

The Tar Heels' defense, which entered with national rankings of No. 8 overall and No. 4 against the pass, spoke openly during game week about feeling the need to give their struggling offense a jolt. Defensive end Robert Quinn promising to "put it on our shoulders."

Did they ever. Quinn jarred the ball loose from Lee Chapple as he passed late in the first quarter. E.J. Wilson returned it to the 16 and Draughn scored on the next play to make it 14-0.

Sturdivant pushed the lead to 21-7 midway through the second when he ripped the ball out of Urbana's hands and returned it down the right sideline for his second career score. Zach Brown's interception moments later gave the Tar Heels the ball at the 22 and three plays later, Houston barreled in from 7 yards out.

Carter then snuffed out the Eagles' next possession with his second career interception return for a TD.

North Carolina, held to nine first downs in last week's loss to the previously winless Cavaliers, nearly matched that on an opening drive that ended with Houston's first 1-yard plunge. He powered in with 6 seconds before the break to give the Tar Heels their most points in a first half since they scored 52 against Duke in 2000.

2009 GAME REVIEWS

Florida State 30, Carolina 27
October 18, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Christian Pander threw for 395 yards and three touchdowns to help Florida State rally from a big second-half deficit and beat North Carolina 30-27 in the first Thursday night game in UNC history.

Rad Owens had nine catches for 199 yards, including a 98-yard score, for the Seminoles (3-4, 1-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), who trailed 24-6 early in the third quarter and appeared headed for a fourth straight loss.

Instead, Pander directed a stunning rally against the nation's third-ranked total defense, including the go-ahead 18-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Beau Relifard with 6:20 to play.

The Tar Heels (4-3, 0-3) still had a chance to tie when they got the ball back with 47 seconds left and no timeouts, but their desperate drive only got to midfield before Markus White sacked T.J. Yates on the final play.

Florida State finished with 438 total yards, the most allowed by North Carolina all season. That came despite the Seminoles generating little on the ground and committing penalty after penalty to force almost the entire burden on Pander, who responded by completing 33 of 40 passes.

The Tar Heels had everything in hand, dominating the mistake-prone Seminoles through the first half to take a 17-6 lead - a margin that could have been even worse had they not had a holding penalty wipe out an 81-yard scoring pass from Yates to Jheranie Boyd.

Yates increased the lead when he rallied left on a keeper and scored from 10 yards out to make it 24-6 with 11:38 left. The rest of the quarter, however, belonged to the Seminoles.

Ponder connected with Taiwan Easterling for a 6-yard touchdown pass to start the comeback. Then, after Yates threw an interception near the goal line, Ponder lofted the ball deep down the right sideline for Owens, who evaded a diving tackle attempt from behind by Charlie Brown and sprinted to the end zone for the 98-yard score - the longest play from scrimmage by either side in a North Carolina game - that made it 24-20 with 4:41 to play in the third.

Carolina 20, Virginia Tech 17
October 29, 2008
Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) - Casey Barth kicked a 21-yard field goal on the final play and the Tar Heels' defense, ranked seventh in the nation, stopped No. 14 Virginia Tech all night long in a 20-17 victory.

One week after blowing an 18-point lead in a 30-27 home loss against Florida State that had them reeling, the Tar Heels put their troubles in the past and handed the Hokies their second loss in a row.

The Tar Heels (5-3, 1-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) got their first conference win after forcing a fumble by Ryan Williams at his own 24 with 2:02 left and running out the clock.

Barth's field goal, his second in the final 3 minutes, just made it official. The reverse may be true of the Hokies (5-3, 3-2), who until losing to No. 11 Georgia Tech 12 days ago were in the thick of the national championship picture and feeling good.

No one felt worse than Williams, who started the night overaging 119 rushing yards, gained 96 and was hoping to lead the team down the field to a win until he lost the ball.

The loss was the Hokies' first in six ACC games against the Tar Heels.

Tydreke Powell caused Williams to fumble for just the second time this season - the first was on a muffed punt in the opener - and Deunta Williams recovered, setting the Tar Heels up at the Hokies 24. After six carries by Ryan Houston, Barth's chip shot won it.

Yates, who was knocked out of the Tar Heels 20-17 loss to the Hokies last season, finished 18-for-28 for just 131 yards. He was sacked twice, both in the first quarter.

He hit Jheranie Boyd from 13 yards in the first half for the game's first points, and Greg Little from 15 yards as the Tar Heels answered immediately after the Hokies tied it.

The Hokies finished with just 256 yards and 11 first downs.

They finally came to life with their first possession of the third quarter, and a huge play by Taylor early in the drive saved it. Facing a third-and-17 from his 11, Taylor dodged pressure and rifled a 22-yard pass to Dyrell Roberts for the first down.

Carolina 19, Duke 3
November 7, 2008
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Ryan Houston ran for a career-high 164 yards and Jheranie Boyd scored the clinching touchdown midway through the fourth quarter to help North Carolina beat Duke 19-6 on Saturday.

Charles Brawn also came up with a key interception late in the third quarter as part of a dominating defensive performance for the Tar Heels (6-3, 2-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), who shut down Thad Lewis and the prolific passing attack that had carried the Blue Devils (5-4, 3-2) to three straight victories.

Duke finished with 125 total yards and had to fight for every one of them. The Tar Heels didn't have much offensive success, but they wore down the Blue Devils behind Houston after starting tailback Shaun Draughn went out with an early shoulder injury.

Houston finished with a career-high 37 carries, including 10 on the clock-draining drive that ended with Boyd's touchdown with 6:57 left.

He also had the lead back on Matt Daniels that allowed Boyd to get to the right pylon on a 3-yard end-around that made it a two-possession game.

Not a bad performance for a guy who typically served as the short-yardage and goal-line back and had never had more than 18 carries or 74 yards rushing in a game. Then again, the Tar Heels didn't have much choice after Draughn injured his left shoulder on a 9-yard gain on the Tar Heels' first offensive play and didn't return.

It was the first meeting in 15 years in which both North Carolina and Duke had winning records, while it was one of the rare times in the rivalry that they weren't meeting to close the regular season. But it ended much like the rest have, with North Carolina winning for the 19th time in 20 meetings.

The game remained tight until the final period despite the fact Lewis was under constant pressure and didn't have time to wait for his receivers to get open.

He completed 16 of 33 passes for 113 yards, snapping his streak of four straight 300-yard games. His biggest mistake came when he tried to force the ball to Conner Vernon late in the third quarter only to see Brown jump in front of the pass and return it 54 yards. That set up Barth's 41-yard kick for a 9-6 lead on the final play of the third quarter.

Carolina 33, Miami 24
November 14, 2009
Kenon Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) - Kendrick Burney returned one of his three interceptions for a 77-yard touchdown and his third pick resulted in a bizarre fourth-quarter score that helped North Carolina beat No. 12 Miami 33-24 on Saturday.

Burney fumbled his third interception on what looked to be a forward lateral, but Melvin Williams picked up the loose ball and ran the last 44 yards for a score. The touchdown held up on review after replays showed the ball slipping from Burney's hand, confirming a play that gave the Tar Heels (7-3, 3-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) a 30-17 lead with about 9 1/2 minutes left.

Casey Borth kicked four field goals, including the clincher with 1:57 left, to help North Carolina become bowl-eligible for the second straight year and give Butch Davis yet another win against his former program. It also was North Carolina's fifth consecutive win against ranked teams dating to last season.

It was quite a way for the Tar Heels to close their home schedule. Their defense, which came in ranked fifth in the nation, allowed 435 yards but harassed Jacory Harris into a career-high four interceptions - with three going to Burney to end drives deep in North Carolina territory.

Harris threw for 319 yards and a touchdown for the Hurricanes (7-3, 4-3), and Graig Cooper and Damien Berry each ran for scores. But they had to play catch-up almost the entire game, with North Carolina using Burney's long TD return to take a 20-7 halftime lead then getting a 32-yard field goal from Barth midway through the third.

It was a familiar scene for the Tar Heels, who led Florida State 24-6 in the third before faltering late and losing 30-27. This time, North Carolina held on, putting together an 11-play, 60-yard drive that took more than 5 minutes off the clock and set up Barth's final field goal - the kind of drive it couldn't manage against the Seminoles.

Ryan Houston ran for 76 yards for the Tar Heels, including 33 on that final drive. Greg Little had a 29-yard TD catch from T.J. Yates in the first quarter.

Burney finished with 170 interception return yards, a single-game ACC record, and became the first Tar Heel to have three picks in a game since Dre' Bly in 1996.

BOSTON (AP) - Cam Thomas and Kendrick Burney each had defensive touchdowns on Saturday as North Carolina scored three times in a span of 2 minutes, 19 seconds to open a 21-point lead and hold on to beat Boston College 31-13.

North Carolina (8-3, 4-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) forced six turnovers totaled to win its fourth consecutive game.

Deunta Williams had three interceptions, returning one 39 yards to the BC 6 inch-line with 4:42 left in the game. Ryan Houston ran it in from there for his second touchdown of the game to make it 28-13.

Boston College (7-4, 4-3) had an outside shot at winning the ACC division title, but that disappeared with a flurry of first-quarter turnovers by quarterback Dave Shinskie that helped spot the Tar Heels to a 21-0 lead. The Eagles would have needed to win their last two games and hope Clemson lost to Virginia, which is in last place in the ACC Coastal Division.

Shinskie fumbled away one ball that Thomas returned 20 yards for a touchdown and then, two plays later, threw an interception that Burney ran in from 30 yards out. Shinskie had four interceptions in all; he also fumbled twice more when BC recovered, and another interception was negated by a pass interference call.

Mike Marscovetra relieved him late in the fourth quarter; his first pass was picked off by Melvin Williams.

T.J. Yates threw three interceptions of his own, including one in the end zone when Carolina was still sitting on a 21-13 lead. But Roderick Rollins, who had been called for a late hit that moved the Tar Heels in position to score, outjumped the receiver and kept BC in the game.

Three plays later, Deunta Williams grabbed his third interception of the game.

Houston ran for 1 yard to make it 7-0, and the Eagles ran just two plays before Shinskie fumbled when was hit from behind by E.J. Wilson. Thomas, a defensive tackle, picked the bouncing ball up and rumbled the last 20 yards, fighting off Harris near the goal line and scoring his first career touchdown to make it 14-0.

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) - Russell Wilson threw four touchdown passes and Alan-Michael Cosh blocked a field goal with about 5 minutes left to help North Carolina State rally past No. 23 North Carolina 28-27.

Wilson connected twice with Owen Spencer for scores, including the go-ahead 38-yard touchdown two plays into the fourth quarter that gave the Wolfpack (5-7, 2-6 ACC) a third straight win against its next-door neighbors and fiercest football rival.

Wilson and the Wolfpack offense got off to a sluggish start against a defense that has ranked among the nation's toughest all year. But the longer the game wore on, the better Wilson and his teammates got, until Wilson put N.C. State on top by lofting a pass over the middle to Spencer, who sprinted away from defender Da'Norris Searcy for the 28-27 lead with 14:31 to play.

Wilson completed 20 of 27 passes for 259 yards, including a critical third-down strike to Spencer with about 3 minutes left that moved the chains and allowed the Wolfpack to work on the clock while the Tar Heels - who burned their final timeout with 3:16 left - could do nothing to stop them.

North Carolina finally got the ball back at its 28-yard line after a fourth-down stop with 23 seconds left. T.J. Yates forced a pass to Erik Highsmith, and the throw went high and into the arms of Clem Johnson to seal the win.

Yates threw two touchdown passes to Jheranie Boyd for the Tar Heels (8-4, 4-4), including a 70-yarder in the final minute of the first half, while Johnny White scored on a 40-yard run that helped North Carolina take a 24-14 halftime lead.

But the Tar Heels repeatedly cast themselves with penalties and a goal-line fumble by White that wiped out what should have been a first-quarter TD run.

In fact, the Tar Heels had two penalties after driving inside the 10 - one holding, one personal foul - that forced them to settle for field goals. Then there was a second-quarter touchdown drive by the Wolfpack in which North Carolina's defense was flagged twice for pass interference and once for roughing.

North Carolina was penalized 10 times for 122 yards in the game.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) - Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown to pass Tony Dorsett as Pittsburgh's top freshman rusher, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) overcame a disappointing loss to Cincinnati three weeks ago that cost it a Sugar Bowl berth and staged a late rally in front of a hostile crowd.

Pitt converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offside penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight loss.

Lewis surpassed Dorsett's freshman rushing record of 1,686 yards in the first quarter and finished with 1,799, behind only Dorsett's 2,150 in his Heisman Trophy-winning, national championship season of 1976.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together: Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

Facing a fourth-and-1 from his own 30 with 6:36 left, Bill Stull got 3 yards on a quarterback keeper.

Lewis was later stuffed on third down, leaving Wannstedt with another decision on fourth-and-2 from the North Carolina 30 with 1:30 left. He brought out the field goal unit, but North Carolina's Cam Thomas jumped offside, giving Pitt a first down.

Lewis got 13 yards on the next play, and his 6-yard run into the middle of the field set it up for Hutchins and erased an earlier blunder.

Lewis broke Dorsett's 36-year-old mark on a 24-yard run late in the first quarter that ended with him fumbling the ball through the end zone for a touchback when E.J. Wilson knocked the ball free.

The shifty Lewis made up for it with a personal, three-play 45-yard drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown run that put Pitt ahead 10-7 early in the second quarter.

The 5-foot-8 Lewis had eclipsed 100 yards by halftime, his 10th 100-yard game of the season and his eighth straight. Not bad for a lightly recruited player deemed too small by most of the major schools.

North Carolina had to overcome its own turnover trouble. Erik Highsmith's fumble set up a Pitt field goal, and Yates was picked off by Dan Mason near the goal line in the second quarter.

After missing from 40 yards on Pitt's opening drive, Hutchins kicked two 31-yard field goals, the second giving the Panthers a 13-10 halftime lead. Hutchins kicked his school-record 22nd field goal early in the third quarter to

*First-Team selection

Defensive tackle William Fuller earned All-America honors in 1982-83 and went on to have a lengthy career in the NFL.

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavelly. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavelly and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and also ranks as the Tar Heels' fourth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 18th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americans on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. His 106 career catches are the ninth-most in school history and until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Dan McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

CHARLES WADDELL - CAREER STATISTICS

Career	41	518	12.6	7

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

Ron Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the ACC's best blocker.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a post-graduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

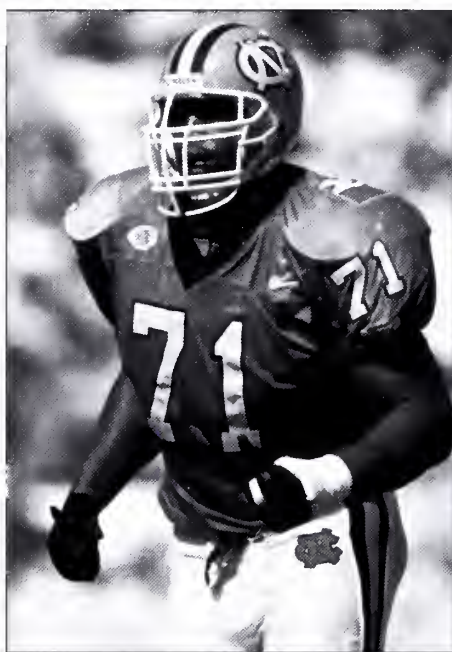

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Marcus Jones posted seven sacks and 19 tackles for losses in 1995 en route to the ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

Harris Barton was an excellent student-athlete at Carolina from 1983-86. He was a first-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers and was chosen for a post-graduate by the NFL.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned Atlantic Coast Conference first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games, including three against Georgia Tech, two at Florida State and two at Virginia. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

A 10-year veteran with the Dallas Cowboys and the 2007 NFL Comeback Player of the Year, Greg Ellis set the career sacks record at North Carolina from 1994-97.

GREG ELLIS, DEFENSIVE END, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

Brian Simmans was a standout linebacker for the Tar Heels from 1994-97, helping lead Carolina to back-to-back Top 10 rankings. He was named a first-team All-America in 1997.

BRIAN SCHMITZ, PUNTER, 1999

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Trophy as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Defensive end Julius Peppers earned All-America honors in 2001 and captured the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman.

*retired jersey

Twenty-six former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been placed on the facade of Kenan Stadium's upper deck. The men honored include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americans and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americans are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americans and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a stand-out for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snively. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snively. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snively worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under Head Coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON MCCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and third in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game — a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS, #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular-season title.

KELVIN BRYANT, #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

Amos Lawrence is the only ACC player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons.

HARRIS BARTON, #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS, #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL draft.

IRV HOLDASH, #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Vaight

BOB LACEY, #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE, #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN, #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

ALL-ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

From 1953-81 the All-ACC Team was selected solely by the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association. The Associated Press picked a separate team from 1982-88. The players listed below for those seasons made both teams unless indicated. The ACSWA and AP teams were consolidated in 1989.

1947 Sugar Bowl New Orleans, La. Georgia 20, Carolina 10 January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

The Dawgs' Charley Trippi rushed for 77 yards, while Justice carried 18 times for 37 yards.

1949 Sugar Bowl New Orleans, La. Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6 January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl Dallas, Texas Rice 27, Carolina 13 January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 35, Air Force 0 December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

1970 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Arizona State 48, Carolina 26 December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Georgia 7, Carolina 3 December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl El Paso, Texas Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28 December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

1974 Sun Bowl El Paso, Texas Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24 December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rocky Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Kentucky 21, Carolina 0 December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 Liberty Bowl Memphis, Tenn. Nebraska 21, Carolina 17 December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

1979 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 17, Michigan 15 December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl Houston, Texas Carolina 16, Texas 7 December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 31, Arkansas 27 December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl El Paso, Texas Carolina 26, Texas 10 December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Florida State 28, Carolina 3 December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl-game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl Honolulu, Hawaii Arizona 30, Carolina 21 December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17 January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Alabama 24, Carolina 10 December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl Miami, Fla. Carolina 20, Arkansas 10 December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 20, West Virginia 13 January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl.

Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

BOWL GAME RECAPS

1998 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3 January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl Las Vegas, Nev. Carolina 20, San Diego State 13 December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Carolina 16, Auburn 10 December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl Charlotte, N.C. Boston College 37, Carolina 24 December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl Charlotte, N.C. West Virginia 31, Carolina 30 December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium that included thousands of fans from both schools.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl Charlotte, N.C. Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17 December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offside penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

Hakeem Nicks holds UNC single-season and career records in receiving yards, receptions and touchdowns.

Quarterback Darian Durant holds nearly every passing mark at UNC, including 68 career touchdown passes.

Dre' Bly set the single-season school record with 11 interceptions in his freshman season.

CAROLINA

2010 FOOTBALL

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Director of Football Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director Bobby Hundley. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Hundley. Best's office is located on the fourth floor of the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials at Carolina home football games should be made in writing on station/newspaper/magazine letterhead to Associate A.D. for Communications Steve Kirschner. The mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515. Requests may be sent via fax (919-962-0612) or e-mail (stevekirschner@unc.edu), but all requests should be sent so they reach the Athletic Communications Office at least one week prior to the game.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 5 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office. Those credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the third quarter.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. We ask, for the safety of others, that equipment not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Steve Kirschner. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the Dogwood Deck at the corner of East and Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players will head directly to the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field Communications representative.

Head coach Butch Davis will conduct a short interview with Woody Durham for the Tar Heel Sports Network's live broadcast while the players are in the interview area. Davis will begin his postgame press conference after the player interviews are completed.

After night games, Davis and the players will be available simultaneously due to deadline demands. Quotes will be gathered from both Davis and several players for distribution in the press box. Away game procedures will vary, depending on available facilities.

Please note: Davis is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network. After night games, great care will be taken to get Davis to the general media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to Davis as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the internet by turning on their computers and filling out the on-line form.

PHONES

Several phones will be available for media use. All long distance calls must be by credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Anyone desiring a private phone should contact Bell South at least two weeks prior to the game. If you are calling from within the 919 area code, dial 780-2800. However, if you are calling from outside the 919 area code, then you must dial 1-800-919-2800.

Phone lines and ethernet access are available for use by photographers only in the main press area. UNC Director of Photography Jeffrey Camarati coordinates the photographer's work area.

Note: The on-campus building number for the press box at Kenan Stadium, for which you will be asked, is #519. List Steve Kirschner as the stadium contact for placing the phone.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH BUTCH DAVIS

Butch Davis will meet with the media at 11:30 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 30 minutes. A podcast of Davis's Monday press conference will be available on TarHeelBlue.com later that afternoon.

Davis is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number.

All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Kevin Best or Bobby Hundley. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted prior to the start of football practice at Kenan Football Center. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Telephone interviews are conducted at the player's convenience. Usually they are handled by players returning calls before practice. No home numbers for players will be given out and players have been told not to accept calls from anyone asking football-related questions.

Please do not show up and wait for players unannounced on campus, at players' housing or the Football Center. The players have been instructed to politely decline the request and refer the person to the Communications Office.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

Note: Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

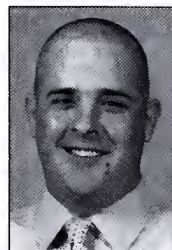

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media before practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Practice will be open for 30 minutes each Tuesday.

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Rams Head Deck on Ridge Road or the Dogwood Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

Tar Heel Sports Network

Learfield Communications begins its 12th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 50 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sobba, the 10-year General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Properties.

"I have worked on various college campuses for more than 20 years," adds Sobba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 16th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Butch Davis Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball," and on "Tar Heel Football Review Show" in the Triangle. When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home.

Woody Durham, beginning his 40th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels," and head coach Butch Davis give fans an opportunity to phone in and talk with the Coach every week during the football season on the "Butch Davis Live" call in show.

Durham also will visit with Coach Davis on "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring conversations with the Tar Heels' Head Coach. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Butch Davis," hosted by Durham, is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

Woody Durham "The Voice of the Tar Heels" 40th year at North Carolina

A 2005 North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame inductee, Woody Durham enters his 40th year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels" this fall.

Since September 1971, Durham has broadcast more than 1,750 Carolina football and basketball games, and the Tar Heels have won more than 72 percent of those games.

A native of Mebane, N.C., Durham grew up in Albemarle, N.C., where he began his broadcasting career with WZKY Radio at age 16. He graduated from UNC in 1963 with an AB degree in Radio, Television and Motion Pictures, and spent 19 years as a TV sportscaster with stints in Greensboro and Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill.

In 1981, Durham joined Tar Heel Sports Properties, which produces the Tar Heel Sports Network, on a full-time basis, and in 1984, he permanently moved his family to Chapel Hill. He and his wife of 47 years, Jean, are the parents of two sons. Wes, Georgia's Sportscaster of the Year, is in his 16th year handling play-by-play duties at Georgia Tech, and his seventh year handling the play-by-play duties for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons. Taylor is a network recruitment manager with International Sports Properties in Winston-Salem, and broadcasts both football and basketball games for Elon University. Woody and Jean have 11-year-old twin grandchildren, Emily and Will.

Durham has been named North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year on 13 different occasions, most recently in 2009. In fact, Woody and Wes were both honored by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association in Salisbury on May 1, 2006.

In 1993, Woody was inducted into the Stanly County Sports Hall of Fame. In 1994, he received the Priceless Gem Award from the UNC Department of Athletics. The following year, the General Alumni Association presented him with its Distinguished Service Medal. In November 2000, the UNC Board of Trustees honored him with the William R. Davie Award. During the 2002 ACC Basketball Tournament, he received the Marvin "Skeeter" Francis Award for special services to the ACC. In 2003, Durham was honored by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association, along with former Carolina football coach Bill Dooley, with the Russell Blunt Legends Award for being a true legend in athletics.

Durham was inducted into the North Carolina Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 2004, honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the North Carolina broadcast industry. He also has received the Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster Award from the All-American Football Association (June, 2005). In 2010, Woody and his wife Jean were presented the Outstanding Service Award from the Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center Board of Visitors for superior leadership, service and loyal support.

In addition to his play-by-play duties, Durham also visits with Coach Butch Davis on "Inside Carolina Football," a daily five-minute radio program. He is with Coach Davis every Wednesday evening during the football season for "Butch Davis Live," a radio call-in show which originates from Top Of The Hill restaurant in downtown Chapel Hill. He also hosts "Inside the Huddle with Butch Davis," a weekly half-hour TV show on Fox Sports South throughout the southeast and on WTVD 11 in the Triangle.

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'n heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Romeses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Romeses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Romeses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

OLD WELL WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team travels from the team hotel and is dropped off in the center of campus at the Old Well, one of the University's most recognized landmarks. From there, the Tar Heels walk from the Old Well through the main quad of campus and into the Kenan Football Center. The Old Well Walk, which began in 2001, is packed each Saturday with thousands of cheering fans, hoping to catch a glimpse of their favorite player or coach. The Old Well Walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalia and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

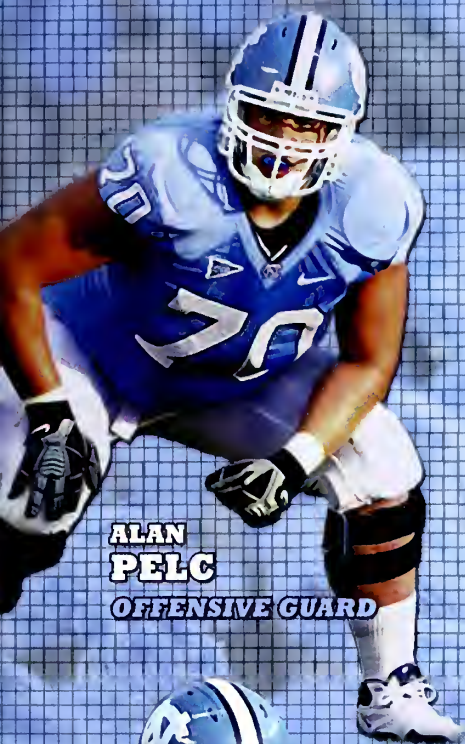

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue -
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell -
For the glory of NCU.

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.

• ALMA MATER

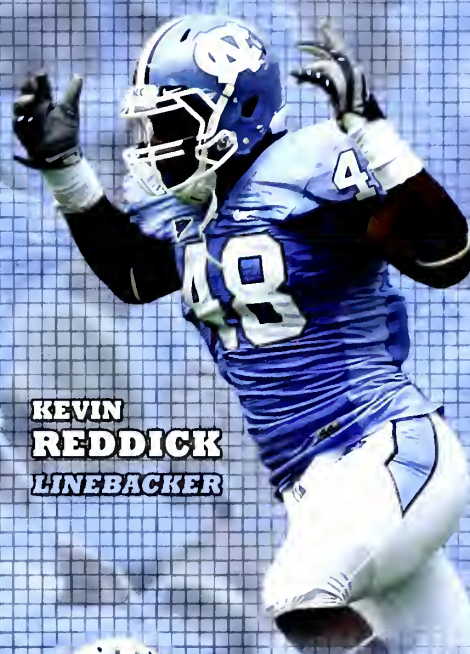

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's - Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
